Magic, Culture and the New Economy Robert Willim, Orvar Löfgren, 2020-09-08 What happens when economies heat up This book looks at the 1990s years of intense economic experimentation when buzz words such as network society the experience economy creative cities and glocalization were everywhere A fascinating perspective on The New Economy emerges as the authors explore the worlds of coolhunters biotech brokers career coaches software entrepreneurs and event managers and tackle such questions as how is magic used in the quest for newness and change what happens when cultural techniques such as branding and styling colonize new arenas what turns out to be just a flash in the pan and what has a lasting impact This book is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand how economies operate in periods of rapid transformation

One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together each refracting messages through their own lenses Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age gender race personality type ethnicity education and social and economic background Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another
