Of Mists and Monsoons Adele Smith,2014-11-05 Of Mists and Monsoons traces the life and fortunes of the principal character from the mists of Ireland to the monsoons of India Born the eldest child of an Irish Catholic family of subsistent potato farmers Sean O'Hara was in his teens when Ireland was overwhelmed by the Great Famine in 1845 His family struggled to survive two successive years of potato blight but succumbed one by one leaving Sean the sole survivor The only way out offered was the chance to join a unit of the British Army stationed in Dublin and with them he was transported to India He changed his name which was customary for Irish recruits and arrived in India as Joseph Harrington Years on Joe was overwhelmed again this time by the Indian Sepoy Mutiny of 1857 In the meantime this remarkable young man overcame every challenge he was set He married an Irish girl he found in a convent and with her raised a family of four The story is loosely based on the author's own family history as her great grandfather was indeed born in Ireland joined the British Army and went to India He stayed there for the rest of his life and founded a family that remained there until Partition in 1946 drove them to England and Uganda Anecdotes from the author's childhood told by her mother are woven into the story wherever possible It is worthy of note that Joseph Harrington prophesied to his close friend Rajah Saeed Khan that though the Indians were defeated in their Mutiny of 1857 they would finally rise and throw off the British overlords He was proved right in 1947 Report Cape of Good Hope (South Africa).
