Dynamics of Heterogeneous Materials Vitali Nesterenko,2013-03-09 This monograph deals with the behavior of essentially nonlinear heterogeneous materials in processes occurring under intense dynamic loading where microstructural effects play the main role This book is not an introduction to the dynamic behavior of materials and general information available in other books is not included The material herein is presented in a form I hope will make it useful not only for researchers working in related areas but also for graduate students I used it successfully to teach a course on the dynamic behavior of materials at the University of California San Diego Another course well suited to the topic may be nonlinear wave dynamics in solids especially the part on strongly nonlinear waves About 100 problems presented in the book at the end of each chapter will help the reader to develop a deeper understanding of the subject I tried to follow a few rules in writing this book 1 To focus on strongly nonlinear phenomena where there is no small parameter with respect to the amplitude of disturbance including solitons shock waves and localized shear 2 To take into account phenomena sensitive to materials structure where typical space scale of material parameters particle size cell size are presented in the models or are variable in experimental research

Single-Trial Analyses of Behavioural and Neuroimaging Data in Perception and Decision-Making Paul Sajda,Guillaume A. Rousselet,Cyril R. Pernet,2012 The cognitive psychology of perception and decision making is at a cross road Most studies still employ categorical designs a priori classified stimuli and perform statistical evaluations across subjects However a shift has been observed in recent years towards parametric designs in which the information content of stimuli is systematically manipulated to study the single trial dynamics of behaviour reaction times eye movements and brain activity EEG MEG fMRI By using the information contained in the variance of individual trials the single trial approach goes beyond the activity of the average brain it reveals the specificity of information processing in individual subjects across tasks and stimulus space revealing both inter individual commonalties and differences This Research Topic provides theoretical and empirical support for the study of single trial data Topics of particular interest include 1 description of the richness of information in single trials and how it can be successfully extracted 2 statistical issues related to measures of central tendency control for multiple comparisons multivariate approaches hierarchical modelling and characterization of individual differences 3 how manipulation of the stimulus space can allow for a direct mapping of stimulus properties onto brain activity to infer dynamics of information processing and information content of brain states 4 how results from different brain imaging techniques can be integrated at the single trial level
