Minerals Yearbook, 2004 Performance Requirement Prohibitions in International Investment Law Alexandre Genest, 2019-09-16 In Performance Requirement Prohibitions in International Investment Law Alexandre Genest explores the prohibition of performance requirements in investment treaties. The author focuses on answering two questions: first, how do States prohibit performance requirements in investment treaties? And second, how should such prohibitions of performance requirements be interpreted and applied? In providing answers to these questions, Alexandre Genest breaks new ground by proposing the first empirical typology of performance requirement prohibitions in investment treaties and the first in-depth analysis of arbitral awards on the subject. Alexandre Genest formulates insightful remarks for a more deliberate and informed interpretation and application of existing performance requirement prohibitions. These remarks will help improve the drafting of performance requirement prohibitions in future investment treaties.

Yearbook on International Investment Law and Policy 2020 Lisa E. Sachs, 2022 The Yearbook on International Investment Law and Policy is an annual publication which provides a comprehensive overview of current developments in the international investment law and policy field.

The Canadian Abridgment, 1966 Yearbook on International Investment Law and Policy, 2013-2014 Andrea K. Bjorklund, 2015 The Yearbook on International Investment Law and Policy 2013-2014 monitors current developments in international investment law and policy, focusing on recent trends and issues in foreign direct investment (FDI). It begins with the 2013-2014 trends in international investment and the activities of multinational enterprises; a review of trends and new approaches in international investment agreements for 2013-2014; and a review of international investment law and arbitration for 2013. This edition contains a sample of the research and ideas generated by the Investment Treaty Forum at the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. Also included are pertinent general articles by leading experts in the field. This volume concludes with the winning memorials from the 2013 FDI International Moot Competition.

Understanding the North American Free Trade Agreement Leslie Alan Glick, 2010-01-01 Understanding the North American Free Trade Agreement is an easy-to-understand summary and analysis of the major provisions and side agreements of this landmark accord. It is written in terms designed to address the needs of non-experts but also contains the detailed information that the experienced international trade executive or attorney will find indispensable.

The Role of the State in Investor-State Arbitration Shaheeza Lalani, Rodrigo Polanco Lazo, 2015-01-08 Edited by Shaheeza Lalani and Rodrigo Polanco Lazo, The Role of the State in Investor State Arbitration is a collection of contributions from lawyers, arbitrators, and political scientists on the development of the concept of the State in a field that currently presents an increasing number of controversial disputes. Investor State Arbitration. The book analyzes the limits of the host State as a regulator, studying issues such as attribution and the role of State-Owned Enterprises and sub-State entities, the changing role of the home State in Investor State disputes, including its direct participation in Investor State arbitration and State-to-State dispute settlement, and the overall role that both home and host States can play in the improvement of Investor State Dispute Settlement The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Annuaire Canadien de Droit International John H. Currie, Ren Provost, 2014-03-01 This is the fiftieth volume of The Canadian Yearbook of International Law The contents of this special anniversary edition reflect the diversity of Canadian and international thought opinion and practice on current problems of international law Included are a retrospective examination of Canadian approaches and contributions to international law during the Yearbook's first fifty years as well as cutting edge analyses and commentary on a wide range of issues such as the use of battlefield biometrics the cultural dimensions of sustainable development Omar Khadr's combatancy and child soldier status and immunities for gross violations of international human rights Second Thoughts Armand de Mestral, 2017-01-30 Criticism Doubts Second thoughts Although investor state arbitration ISA has been included in investment agreements between developed and developing countries since the 1960s and provided foreign investors with a kind of private justice against developing world host states it became increasingly controversial in developed countries when it was included in NAFTA in 1993 creating the possibility of ISA claims between and against two developed countries the United States or Canada as well as claims against and by a developing state Mexico A few years later the OECD's attempt to finalize the Multilateral Agreement on Investment was stymied by concerted civil society protest and opposition to ISA and in recent years each new proposed agreement has sparked fresh rounds of protest What engenders the controversy about ISA While ISA's advantage is that it prevents escalation of international conflict by relieving states from feeling obliged to espouse claims of injured investors against foreign governments it is criticized for creating regulatory chill whereby states are reluctant to make necessary public policy reforms for fear that changes to the investment environment will lead to expensive investor claims Are fears of litigation and expensive payouts well founded Can key modifications to the ISA system such as those added to the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement satisfy critics and redeem this system of private justice Is ISA really necessary between developed democracies where an independent and professional judiciary can generally be trusted to decide without fear or favour In Second Thoughts Investor State Arbitration between Developed Democracies 16 international investment legal experts have undertaken in depth analyses of ISA's economic political and social impacts when included in agreements between developed democracies This timely volume appears at a critical moment seeking answers to the crucial questions that will determine the next generation of international investment agreements Why Mexicans Don't Drink Molson Andrea Mandel-Campbell, 2009-07-01 Canada has all the makings of a global leader yet it has opted to become a laggard frittering away its jackpot of rich resources rather than building viable multinationals that are ultimately the country's best defence in a globalized world Andrea Mandel Campbell interviews some of Canada's leading executives and behind the scenes movers and shakers to reveal the hidden challenges to Canada's global success and the perils of continued complacency A lively and authoritative compendium of never before heard tales of Canadian companies abroad Why

Mexicans Don't Drink Molson is also a hands on guide for innovative competitiveness helping readers to identify the nation's previously underestimated assets and abilities

Offshore Petroleum Politics Peter Clancy, 2011-09-01 The extraction of oil and gas from offshore continental shelves represents one of the most dynamic sectors of global petroleum development. It is also one of the most complex. Atlantic Canada is no exception and the history of Scotian Basin petroleum over the past half century reveals a fascinating series of political challenges, accommodations and settlements. Peter Clancy's comprehensive analysis of petroleum politics in Nova Scotia demonstrates the complex intergovernmental and intercorporate relationships, ecological concerns and Aboriginal interests that have complicated offshore development. Among the analytic themes he addresses are institutional adaptation and rigidity, basin development as a policy challenge, the strong and weak characteristics of the offshore state and the shifting shapes of the offshore polity. His incisive analysis of the complex politics at play provides new insights into the unique challenges facing the petroleum industry in Atlantic Canada.

The Role of Climate Change in Global Economic Governance Bradley J. Condon, Tapen Sinha, 2013-08-22 Climate change represents an unprecedented challenge the effects of which require an urgent and effective international response. This book analyses its effect on both developing and developed countries from an economic, financial and legal perspective, assessing its interaction with international economic law.

Schreuer's Commentary on the ICSID Convention Stephan W. Schill, Loretta Malintoppi, August Reinisch, Christoph H. Schreuer, Anthony Sinclair, 2022-09-14 This unique compendium offers an article by article commentary on the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States. Providing a comprehensive explanation of the functioning of this important mechanism for the settlement of investor State disputes, it incorporates the preparatory work, the Convention's text, various rules and regulations adopted under the Convention, the practice of arbitral tribunals under the Convention and academic writings on the subject. The first and second editions of this Commentary have been relied upon by numerous arbitral tribunals. This third edition follows the same system and approach but extensive updates and revisions reflect the vast increase in arbitral practice since the publication of the second edition. A number of novel issues that have emerged through this practice are now addressed, making this practice oriented guide an indispensable tool for anyone dealing with the ICSID Convention. Likewise, the number of contributors to and editors of the third edition has increased.

Resolving Conflicts in the Law Chiara Giorgetti, Natalie Klein, 2019-01-03 Resolving Conflicts in the Law, edited by Chiara Giorgetti and Natalie Klein, honours the work of Professor Lea Brilmayer whose intellectual contribution and influence span scholarly debate and the practice of both public and private international law. The book's essays are from leading international law scholars and practitioners in the field, including Michael Reisman, Stephen Schwebel, Erin O'Connor, O'Hara John Crook, Philippa Webb, Kermit Roosevelt, Harold Koh, and reflect on contemporary and cutting edge questions of international law. Each contribution enriches and advances scholarly debate on topics of law for which Lea Brilmayer is well known including international dispute settlement conflicts of law international relations theory secession and territorial and maritime sovereignty

Requiem or Revival? Isabel Studer, Carol Wise, 2008-05-31 The North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA was launched amid great hopes and controversy in 1994 More than a dozen years later progress toward economic integration has stalled Mexico's economy remains far behind those of Canada and the United States and such pressing issues as energy security remain unaddressed In Requiem or Revival scholars and policymakers from all three nations dissect NAFTA's failure to fulfill its early promise and evaluate the prospects for further integration The authors explore the interaction between regionalism and multilateralism the impact of the new trade agenda and NAFTA's unresolved problems migration security and energy Recognizing the limits of the NAFTA framework they examine its relationship to the Free Trade Agreement of the Americas negotiations and the Doha Development Round and they discuss various ways in which NAFTA could be revamped or improved The result is an intriguing volume offering important insights on the future of economic integration in North America and beyond Contributors include Chantal Blouin North South Institute Theodore H Cohn Simon Fraser University emeritus I M Destler University of Maryland Charles F Doran Johns Hopkins University SAIS Christina Gabriel Carleton University Sergio Gomez Lora IQOM Inteligencia Comercial Jerry Haar Florida International University Laura Macdonald Carleton University Gordon Mace Universit Laval Isidro Morales University of the Americas Glauco Oliveira University of Southern California Antonio Ortiz Mena CIDE Jeffrey J Schott Peterson Institute for International Economics Anne Weston North South Institute Tamara Woroby Towson University Johns Hopkins University SAIS and Jaime Zabudovsky Soluciones Estrategicas
