Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia Linda Rae Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Women We Love SooJin Lee, Kate Korroch, Liew Kai Khiun, 2023-09-19 Women We Love Femininities and the Korean Wave is an edited volume exploring femininities in and around the Korean Wave since 2000 While studies on the Korean Wave are abundant there is a dearth of thought put toward the female identifying stars characters and fans who shape and lead this crucial cultural movement This collection of essays is one of the first works to focus on gender and the key female actors of this global phenomenon Using women as an inclusive term extending to all those who self define as women this volume examines the role of women in K pop and K drama industries and fandom spaces encompassing crucial intersectional topics such as queering of gender dissemination of media and fan culture In addition to the communities engaged with visual culture of the Korean Wave the audience for Women We Love will reflect the contributors to this text They are K pop and K drama fans queer international they are also academics of Asian histories sociology gender and sexuality art history and visual culture The chapters are playful intersectional and will be adapted well into syllabi for media studies gender studies visual culture studies sociology and contemporary global history Women We Love goes far beyond the dyad of the flower boy Hallyu star and his female fan to offer readers an illuminating discussion of plural femininities in the Korean Wave since the turn of the millennium The essays will answer many burning yet heretofore unanswered questions about the affective resonances and political significance of Korean popular culture s gender dynamics which have fascinated puzzled and at times frustrated many fans and observers Rigorously interdisciplinary yet grounded in textual detail historical context and material reception practices this is a timely and valuable contribution to the study of gender fandom and global media Michelle Cho University of Toronto This is a provoking and fascinating book one of the most awaited books in Hallyu studies Drawing from a multitude of feminist theories and case studies this edited volume not only provides captivating and much needed discussions but also critically expands the current debates in gender studies feminism studies and fan studies This book is vital literature for researchers students and practitioners who are willing to advance their understanding of the Korean Wave from a new scope and angle Dal Yong Jin Simon Fraser University

Out in the Country Mary L. Gray, 2009-08-01 Winner of the 2009 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Monograph from the Society of Lesbian and Gay Anthropologists Winner of the 2010 Distinguished Book Award from the American Sociological Association Sociology of Sexualities Section Winner of the 2010 Congress Inaugural Qualitative Inquiry Book Award Honorable Mention An unprecedented contemporary account of the online and offline lives of rural LGBT youth From Wal Mart drag parties to renegade Homemaker s Clubs Out in the Country offers an unprecedented contemporary account of the lives of today s rural queer youth Mary L Gray maps out the experiences of young people living in small towns across rural Kentucky and along its desolate Appalachian borders providing a fascinating and often surprising look at the contours of gay life beyond the big city Gray illustrates that against a backdrop of an increasingly impoverished and privatized rural America LGBT youth and their allies visibly and often vibrantly work the boundaries of the public spaces available to them whether in their high schools public libraries town hall meetings churches or through websites This important book shows that in addition to the spaces of Main Street rural LGBT youth explore and carve out online spaces to fashion their emerging queer identities Their triumphs and travails defy clear distinctions often drawn between online and offline experiences of identity fundamentally redefining our understanding of the term queer visibility and its political stakes Gray combines ethnographic insight with incisive cultural critique engaging with some of the biggest issues facing both queer studies and media scholarship Out in the Country is a timely and groundbreaking study of sexuality and gender new media youth culture and the meaning of identity and social movements in a digital age

Virtual English Jillana B. Enteen, 2009-12-16 Virtual English examines English language communication on the World Wide Web focusing on Internet practices crafted by underserved communities in the US and overlooked participants in several Asian Diaspora communities Jillana Enteen locates instances where subjects use electronic media to resist popular understandings of cyberspace computer mediated communication nation and community presenting unexpected responses to the forces of globalization and predominate US value systems The populations studied here contribute websites conversations and artifacts that employ English strategically broadening and splintering the language to express their concerns in the manner they perceive as effective Users are thus afforded new opportunities to transmit information conduct conversations teach and make decisions shaping in the process both language and technology Moreover web designers and writers conjure distinct versions of digitally enhanced futures computer mediated communication may attract audiences previously out of reach The subjects of Virtual English challenge prevailing deployments and conceptions of emerging technologies Their on line practices illustrate that the Internet need not replicate current geopolitical beliefs and practices and that reconfigurations exist in tandem with dominant models
