New Adventures Of William Tell:

The New Adventures of William Tell Anthony Horowitz,1989 Syndicated Television Hal Erickson,2024-10-09

Here is an excellent reference book on first run syndication the distribution of programs either made exclusively for non network play or of programs intended for network telecasts but ultimately making their debuts in syndication Bringing together information not easily found this work covers the classics such as Sea Hunt Highway Patrol The Merv Griffin Show and the Muppet Show as well as such once popular but now obscure productions as China Smith Ripcord and The Littlest Hobo Coverage goes back to 1947 and the book includes a number of series ignored in other works The first section is an overview of the concept of syndication from its earliest application in the newspaper world to the attempt by Fox Television to become a fourth network The next four sections each cover ten years of syndication listing the shows with full background who produced them and why who liked them and why etc alphabetically by title under the following genres Adventure Mystery Children s Comedy Drama Game Quiz Informational Music Variety Religious Sports Talk Interview Travel Documentary Westerns and Women s 100 British Crime Writers Esme Miskimmin,2020-11-12 100 British Crime Writers explores a history of British crime writing between 1855 and 2015 through 100 writers detailing their lives and significant writing and exploring their contributions to the genre Divided into four sections The Victorians Edwardians and World War One 1855 1918 The Golden Age and World War Two 1919 1945 Post War and Cold War 1946 1989 and To the Millennium and Beyond 1990 2015 each section offers an introduction to the significant features of these eras in crime fiction and discusses trends in publication readership and critical response With entries spanning the earliest authors of crime fiction to a selection of innovative contemporary novelists this book considers the development and progression of the genre in the light of historical and social events Swashbucklers James Chapman,2015-07-01 Swashbucklers is the first study of one of the most popular and enduring genres in television history the costume adventure series It maps the history of swashbuckling television from its origins in the 1950s to the present It places the various series in their historical and institutional contexts and also analyses how the form and style of the genre has changed over time And it includes case studies of major swashbuckling series including The Adventures of Robin Hood The Buccaneers Ivanhoe William Tell Zorro Arthur of the Britons Dick Turpin Robin of Sherwood Sharpe Hornblower The Count of Monte Cristo and the recent BBC co production of The Three Musketeers Cinematic countrysides Robert Fish,2017-10-03 Recent years have witnessed an explosion of interest in the spatialities of cinema across the social sciences and humanities yet to date critical inquiry has tended to explore this issue as a question of the city and the urban For the first time leading scholars in geography film and cultural studies have been drawn together to explore the multiple ways in which ideas of cinema and countryside are co produced how film makes rural and rural makes film From the expanse of the American great west to the mountainous landscapes of North Korea Cinematic Countrysides draws on a range of popular and alternative film genres to demonstrate how film texts come to prefigure expectations of rural social space and how these representations come to shape and be shaped by the material and embodied circumstances of lived rural experience At the heart of this volume s varied apprehensions of the cinematic countryside is a concern to argue that ideas of rurality in film are central to wider questions of modernity and tradition self and other nationhood and globalisation and crucially ones that are central to an account of the cinematic city

Australian Animation Dan Torre,Lienors Torre,2018-11-02 This book provides the most comprehensive history and analysis of Australian animation published to date Spanning from the 1910s to the present day it explores a wide range both of independent animation and of large scale commercial productions Presented within a uniquely international context it details the frequent links between Australian animation and overseas productions New perspectives and original information are offered on a variety of international subjects such as Felix the Cat the Australian Hanna Barbera studios and the Australian Walt Disney studios Drawing on both extensive archival research and original interviews this book illuminates for the first time the breadth and richness of Australia s animation history

Hollywood's Women of Action Philip Caudrey,2024-04-26 The action heroine has never been more popular than she is today with the likes of The Hunger Games 2012 Mad Max Fury Road 2015 and Wonder Woman 2017 granting her a newfound prominence in Hollywood filmmaking When most knowledgeable action fans think of the action heroine historically however they tend to do so through the prism of her most iconic characters Emma Peel in the 1960s Lynda Carter's Wonder Woman in the 1970s Ripley and Sarah Connor in the 1980s Xena Warrior Princess and Buffy the Vampire Slayer in the 1990s and of course the likes of Hermione Granger Katniss Everdeen Imperator Furiosa and Princess Diana in modern times Yet the action heroine's epic journey goes back much further than this Indeed it has its origins in the earliest days of cinema amongst the serial queens of the early silent era and the fleeting cowgirls swordswomen and jungle girls of Hollywood's Golden Age in the 1930s 1940s and 1950s This book is about that epic journey It traces the action heroine's century long struggle for legitimacy and respect beginning with the silent era serial The Perils of Pauline 1914 and ending with the big budget action blockbusters of today This book asks why the action heroine's path towards acceptability on mainstream film and television has proven such a long and tortuous one why she is so hated by a vocal minority of male action fans and how she has overcome the conservatism of the Hollywood system to at last forge a reputation for herself as a genuinely viable protagonist on both the big and small screens

Encyclopedia of Television Subjects, Themes and Settings Vincent Terrace,2024-10-17 Over the course of 80 years television has produced countless programs many of which fit a particular profile Did you know for example some programs are devoted to ghosts genies angels and even mermaids Color broadcasting was first tested in 1941 Live models were used to advertise lingerie as early as 1950 Or that nudity although accidental occurred on TV long before cable was even thought possible These are just a few of the many facts and firsts that can be found within the 145 entries included Appropriate for fans and scholars and bursting with obscure facts this work traces the evolution of specific topics from 1925 through the 2005 2006 season Entries include such diverse themes as adolescence adult film actresses on TV bars espionage gays immigrants lawyers transsexuals and truckers as well as locations like Canada Hawaii New York and Los Angeles Each entry is arranged as a timeline clearly displaying how television's treatment of the subject has changed through the years Each entry is as complete as possible and contains series pilot special and experimental program information Whether just a fan of television and eager to know more about the medium or a scholar seeking hard to find facts and information this book traces the history of specific topics from television's infancy to its changes in the early twenty first century
