New Essays in Philosophical Theology Antony Flew, Alasdair C. MacIntyre, 1955 New Essays in Philosophical Theology Antony Flew, Alasdair C. MacIntyre, 1972 New Essays in philosophical theology, 1961 New Essays in Philosophical Theology Antony Flew, 2003-01-01 New Essays in Philosophical Theology. Ed. by Antony Flew, Alasdair MacIntyre. (1. Publ.) Antony Flew, Alasdair MacIntyre, 1955 New Essays in Philosophical Theology. Edited by A. Flew ... A. MacIntyre Antony Garrard Newton FLEW (and MAC INTYRE (Alexander Chalmers)), Alexander Chalmers MACINTYRE, 1955

God and the Ethics of Belief Andrew Dole, Andrew Chignell, 2005-06-06 Philosophy of religion in the Anglo American tradition experienced a rebirth following the 1955 publication of New Essays in Philosophical Theology eds Antony Flew and Alisdair MacIntyre Fifty years later this volume of essays offers a sampling of the best work in what is now a very active field written by some of its most prominent members A substantial introduction sketches the developments of the last half century while also describing the ethics of belief debate in epistemology and showing how it connects to explicitly religious concerns and to the topics of the individual contributions These topics include the relationship between God and the natural laws the metaphysics of bodily resurrection the role of appeal to mystery in the religious life the justification of both theistic belief generally and more specific doctrinal beliefs and the social political aspects of religious faith and practice New Essays in Philosophical Theology Ed. by Anthony Flew , Alasdair MacIntyre , 1955 Essays New Theologie Antony Flew, Alasdair MacIntyre, 1969 In Search of the Divine Joseph Mathew, 2010 Analytic Theology Oliver D. Crisp, Michael C. Rea, 2009-02-13 Philosophy in the English speaking world is dominated by analytic approaches to its problems and projects but theology has been dominated by alternative approaches Many would say that the current state in theology is not mere historical accident but is rather how things ought to be On the other hand many others would say precisely the opposite that theology as a discipline has been beguiled and taken captive by continental approaches and that the effects on the discipline have been largely deleterious The methodological divide between systematic theologians and analytic philosophers of religion is ripe for exploration The present volume represents an attempt to begin a much needed interdisciplinary conversation about the value of analytic philosophical approaches to theological topics Most of the essays herein are sympathetic toward the enterprise the editors are calling analytic theology but with an eye toward balance the volume also includes essays and an introduction that try to offer more critical perspectives on analytic theology Models of God and Alternative Ultimate Realities Jeanine Diller, Asa Kasher, 2013-06-13 The envisioned volume is a collection of recent essays about the philosophical exploration critique and comparison of a the major philosophical models of God gods and other ultimate realities implicit in the world s philosophical schools and religions and of b the ideas of such models and doing such modeling per se The aim is to identify exactly what a model of ultimate reality is create a comprehensive and accessible collection of extant models and determine how best philosophically to model ultimate reality if possible and desirable

Naturalism and Religion Kai Nielsen, 2011-04-29 This elucidation and defense of naturalism argues that an uncompromising secular orientation is the best framework for the search for meaning and interprets religion in purely naturalistic terms Part One seeks to demonstrate that religious symbols arise from facts about human beings and the societies in which they live specifically our needs fears and aspirations Part Two examines arguments for and against naturalism including the defenses of naturalism by Sidney Hook Ernest Nagel Antony Flew and critical reactions to their views The forceful and rigorously analytical case made by Jean Hampton against naturalism is also examined resulting in a clarification of the substantial and sound methodological grounds for naturalism and atheism Part Three considers the strongest intellectual challenge to secularism and naturalism namely that of Ludwig Wittgenstein and some of his followers Norman Malcolm D Z Phillips Hilary Putnam Rush Rhees and Peter Winch Nielsen concludes that none of these critiques diminish the cogency and viability of naturalism as the most reasonable basis for viewing our world today Stations on the Journey of Inquiry Mary Budde Ragan, 2017-03-23 In this collection Stations on the Journey of Inquiry David Burrell launches a revolutionary reinterpretation of how any inquiry proceeds boldly critiquing presumptuous theories of knowledge language and ethics While his later publications Analogy and Philosophical Language 1973 and Aquinas God and Action 1979 elucidate Aquinas's linguistic theology these early writings show what often escapes articulation how one comes to understanding and takes a judgment Although Aquinas serves as an axial figure for Burrell's expansive corpus of scholarship spanning more than fifty years this selection of essays presents other positions and counterpositions to whom his own philosophical theology is beholden Plato Aristotle Cajetan Kant Peirce Moore Wittgenstein Sellars Weiss Ross McInerney and Lonergan With renewed interest in philosophy of language by postmodern thinkers as well as in the wake of Mulhall's Stanton Lectures on Wittgenstein and Grammatical Thomism the publication of these formative writings proves timely for the academy at large Burrell invites us to reconsider not only the way in which we conduct an inquiry but what it is we take language to be and how we take responsibility for what we say Positivism and Christianity K.H. Klein, 2012-12-06 This essay is conceived as a critical exposition of the central issues that figure in the ongoing conversation between Logical Positivists and neo Positivists on the one hand and Christian apologists on the other My expository aim is to isolate and to describe the main issues that have emerged in the extended discussion between men of Positivistic turn of mind and men sympathetic to the claims of Christianity My critical aim is to select typical influential stands that have been taken on each of these issues to assess their viability and to isolate certain dilemmas which discussion of these issues has generated I am convinced that the now commonly rejected verifiability theory of meaning is very commonly misunderstood and has been rejected by and large for the wrong reasons Before it is cast off if it is to be cast off what is needed is a reconsideration of that theory and of the objections that its several formulations have elicited Furthermore at least partially because of a misconstruing of the verifiability doctrine there have been some interesting though in my opinion unsuccessful claims advanced about the testability status of sentences expressive of Christian belief Moreover in their haste to vindicate Christianity some apologists have been fairly cavalier in my opinion about what Christianity involves This volume offers what I hope will be a clear statement and analysis of the principle points at issue between Positivism and Christianity together with my own assessment of where the argument stands now A Dictionary of Philosophy of Religion Charles Taliaferro, 2010-08-19 A Dictionary of Philosophy of Religion is an indispensable resource for students and scholars Covering historical and contemporary figures arguments and terms it offers an overview of the vital themes that make philosophy of religion the growing vigorous field that it is today It covers world religions and sources from east and west Entries have been crafted for clarity succinctness and engagement Named a Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2011 Divine Agency and Divine Action, Volume I William J. Abraham, 2017-10-27 Divine Agency and Divine Action Volume I lays the groundwork for a constructive contribution to the contemporary debate regarding divine action Noted scholar William J. Abraham argues that the concept of divine action is not a closed concept like knowledge but an open concept with a variety of context dependent meanings The volume charts the history of debate about divine action among key Anglophone philosophers of religion and observes that they were largely committed to this erroneous understanding of divine action as a closed concept After developing an argument that divine action should be understood as an open fluid concept Abraham engages the work of William Alston Process metaphysics quantum physics analytic Thomist philosophy of religion and the theology of Kathryn Tanner Abraham argues that divine action as an open concept must be shaped by distinctly theological considerations and thus all future work on divine action among philosophers of religion must change to accord with this vision Only deep engagement with the Christian theological tradition will remedy the problems ailing contemporary discourse on divine action Philosophy of Religion C. Stephen Evans, 1985-01-01 C. Stephen Evans examines the central themes of philosophy of religion including the arguments for God's existence the meaning of revelation and miracles and the problem of religious language Understanding Pannenberg Anthony C. Thiselton, 2018-06-01 Wolfhart Pannenberg has forever changed the face of twentieth century theology His book on Christology constituted a turning point away from Bultmann's existentialist theology and convincingly vindicated belief in the bodily resurrection of Jesus and its importance for theology His numerous other works especially his Systematic Theology Theological Anthropology and Theology and the Philosophy of Science show both depth of learning and an unsurpassed and enviable range of interests This book aims to explain the vast scope of Pannenberg's thought his understanding of the sovereignty and majesty of the God as the God of all reality not only Israel and the church who also revealed himself in Jesus Christ Jesus is not simply the pre-resurrection Jesus of many Gospel narratives but the raised and exalted Christ of the whole New Testament Pannenberg shines a light on the centrality of futurity and of the whole of reality in God's purposes Meaning becomes clear in the light of the whole as his hermeneutics explains He expounds the role of God as Trinity and the Holy Spirit His vision of God and the whole world is breath taking and often heartening and practical Beyond Realism:

Seeking the Divine Other Simon Smith, 2018-01-15 The meaning of God talk remains the fundamental issue facing religious thinkers today This study concerns the analogies needed to make sense of that talk Embracing those analogies signals the application of Austin Farrer s cutting edge theology Almost fifty years after his death Farrer remains one of the twentieth century s last great metaphysical minds his grasp of faith and philosophy unequalled Having defended religious thought against both Positivist and Process reduction he pursued his own revision of scholastic tradition ultimately developing the vital corrective to an overweening impersonalism one which depersonalises the divine so severs the cosmological connection Following this course returns us to an earlier tradition to a metaphysic of persons exemplified in the expressions of lived faith This draws upon the logic of personal identity what it means to be or rather to become a person Hence journey s end lies in a Feuerbachian anthropology of theology or anthropotheism Like Farrer Feuerbach used the believer s language to relocate theology and philosophy within a framework that makes fertile use of anthropomorphic personifications to think God Revisiting the personalist presuppositions of metaphysics in this way throws light on the most vital questions of personal identity To answer them is to draw reality on a grander scale than either realism or consequentialism is capable of Most importantly it is locate our place within that image Doing theology dynamically or psychologically informed as both Farrer and Feuerbach insisted means recognising the constitutive role such images play in self construction Without active participation in our ideals and aspirations we cannot become persons at all participation entails the enactment of our prospective selves This returns us to the practice of piety faith in a Godly person Here we find the reconstruction of Feuerbach s anthropology as applied theology and by extension or amplification the completion of Farrer s personalist metaphysics
