Guy Davenport and James Laughlin Guy Davenport, James Laughlin, 2007 Still with his life as entwined as it was with New Directions Laughlin speaks often and interestingly about some of the giants of the modern period most often Ezra Pound in whose work Davenport had a deep interest The most distinct aspect of their correspondence stems from the fact that although Laughlin ended up publishing some of Davenport's work their friendship was the primary force behind their letters More than simply detailing an author publisher relationship these letters depict two fine minds educating and supporting each other in the service of literature Jacket The Woman with the Flying Head and Other Stories Kurahashi Yumiko, Atsuko Sakaki, 2015-05-20 This is an English language anthology dedicated to the short stories of Kurahashi Yumiko 1935 a Japanese novelist of profound intellectual powers The eleven stories included in this volume suggest the breadth of the author's literary production ranging from parodies of classical Japanese literature to cosmopolitan avant garde works from quasi autobiography to science fiction Her subversive fiction defies established definitions of literature Japan modernity and femininity and represents an important intellectual aspect of modern Japanese women's literature *Catalog of Copyright Entries. engages with examines or critiques the new leisure technologies of their era is fundamentally changed by the encounter with that technology The chapters in the book focus on shopping advertising dance film radio and phonography on city spaces such as Coney Island Greenwich Village and Harlem and on poetry that embraces the linguistic and formal innovations of modernism whilst paying close attention to the embodied politics of gender The technologized city and the leisure cultures and media forms emerging from it enabled modernist women writers to re imagine forms of lyric embodiment inspired by the impact of technology on modern ideas of selfhood and subjectivity

The Solitary Explorer Elena Malits CSC,2014-09-17 The Solitary Explorer responsibly and critically explores Thomas Merton s lifelong spiritual development as reflected in his religious and secular writings and delineates the meaning of his life and work for contemporary readers It provides an interpretive chronology of Merton s writings and unravels the intertwining threads of self realization and widening intellectual interests evidenced in the material he produced between his early autobiography and the controversial work of his later years Elena Malits shows Merton as writer as monk as social critic as seeker of wisdom in the East as man of prayer and as one continually on a journey into the unknown Merton always held that the quest for God is a continuing one The Solitary Explorer traces the progress of this quest in Merton's life and literary works to reveal a multifaceted spiritual guide who offers an approach to the divine at once reassuringly traditional and refreshingly contemporary New Directions in Prose and Poetry 24 James Laughlin, 1972 American Poetry David Caplan, 2022 American poetry's two characteristics American English as a poetic resource Convention and idiosyncrasy Auden and Eliot two complicating examples On the present and future of American poetry The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery's anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka's documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

Ezra Pound's Confucian Translations Mary Paterson Cheadle, 1997 Provides bold insights into Pound's Fascism

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience
