New York World Trade Center Competition:

The Twin Towers in Film Randy Laist, 2020-02-13 For thirty years the twin towers of the World Trade Center soared above the New York City skyline eventually becoming one of the most conspicuous symbolic structures in the world They appeared in hundreds of films from Godspell and Death Wish to Trading Places Ghostbusters and The Usual Suspects The politicians architects and engineers who developed the towers sought to imbue them with a powerful visual presence The resulting buildings provided filmmakers with imposing set pieces capable of conveying a range of moods and associations from the sublime and triumphal to the sinister and paranoid While they stood they captured the imagination of the world with their enigmatic symbolism In their dramatic destruction they became icons of a history that is still being written Here viewed in the context of popular cinema the twin towers are emblematic of how architecture film and narrative interact to express cultural aspirations and anxieties

The City Since 9/11 Keith Wilhite, 2016-03-04 Charting the intersection of aesthetic representation and the material conditions of urban space The City Since 9/11 posits that the contemporary metropolis provides a significant context for reassessing theoretical concerns related to narrative identity home and personal precarity In the years since the September 11 attacks writers and filmmakers have explored urban spaces as contested sites shaped by the prevailing discourses of neoliberalism homeland security and the war on terror but also haunted by an absence in the landscape that registers loss and prefigures future menace In works of literature film and television the city emerges as a paradoxical space of permanence and vulnerability and a convergence point for anxieties about globalization structural inequality and apocalyptic violence Building on previous scholarship addressing trauma and the spectacle of terror the contributors also draw upon works of philosophy urban studies and postmodern geography to theorize how literary and visual representations expose the persistent conflicts that arise as cities rebuild in the shadow of past ruins Their essays advance new lines of argument that clarify art s role in contemporary debates about spatial practices gentrification cosmopolitanism memory and history nostalgia the uncanny and the abject postmodern virtuality the politics of realism and the economic and social life of cities The book offers fresh readings of familiar post 9 11 novels such as Jonathan Safran Foer s Extremely Loud Incredibly Close but it also considers works by Teju Cole Joseph O Neill Silver Krieger Colum McCann Ronald Sukenick Jonathan Lethem Thomas Pynchon Colson Whitehead Paul Auster William Gibson Amitav Ghosh and Katherine Boo In addition The City Since 9 11 includes essays on the films Children of Men Hugo and the adaptation of Extremely Loud Incredibly Close chapters on the television series The Bridge The Killing and The Wire and an analysis of Michael Arad s Reflecting Absence and the 9 11 Memorial
