unchallenged assumptions stand in the way of our freedom Using Leahy s methods which are based on the best psychological treatments available you will be able to work toward a life free from the apprehension tension and avoidance associated with anxiety Mindfulness and Psychotherapy Christopher K. Germer,Ronald D. Siegel,Paul R. Fulton,2005-03-09 Responding to growing interest among psychotherapists of all theoretical orientations this practical book provides a comprehensive introduction to mindfulness and its clinical applications The authors who have been practicing both mindfulness and psychotherapy for decades present a range of clear cut procedures for implementing mindfulness techniques and teaching them to patients experiencing depression anxiety chronic pain and other problems Also addressed are ways that mindfulness practices can increase acceptance and empathy in the therapeutic relationship The book reviews the philosophical underpinnings of mindfulness and presents compelling empirical findings User friendly features include illustrative case examples practice exercises and resource listings Well-Being and Theism William A. Lauinger,2012-07-12 Well Being and Theism is divided into two distinctive parts The first part argues that desire fulfillment welfare theories fail to capture the good part of good for and that objective list welfare theories fail to capture the for part of good for Then with the aim of capturing both of these parts of good for a conjunctive theory one which places both a value constraint and a desire constraint on well being is advanced Lauinger then defends this proposition which he calls the desire perfectionism theory against possible objections In the second part Lauinger explores the question What metaphysics best supports the claim that the vast majority of humans have the desires for friendship accomplishment health etc built into themselves It is argued that there are two general metaphysical routes that might convincingly be taken here and that each one leads us toward theism
