Subject: Education

Harvard Law School (HLS) is among the professional graduate schools of Harvard University and is America's oldest law school which has been in continuous operation. HLS has gained prestige over time due to its constant exemplary performance hence being ranked among the top five in the world. This year, 2008 it has been ranked position two. It has enough resources and facilities necessary for the students; it owns the largest academic law library in the world which has enough books and other materials. Admission in HLS is highly selective because of its competencies. It has a highly competitive environment; students are very ambitious and work hard to achieve the best. Hence it is not a surprise to know that numerous Congress members and great political leaders graduated from this HLS (for instance, U.S. Supreme Court justices and U.S. Senators...
