Pablo Picasso Dr Enrique Mallen, 2023-03-18 Exactly when Matisse and Picasso first met is open to debate Their earliest encounter may have taken place during the Matisse retrospective at Galerie Druet right before the 1906 Salon des Indépendants The latter marked the first time all the Fauves exhibited together The centerpiece was Matisse's monumental Le bonheur de vivre Leo Stein bought the painting while the Salon was still running regarding it as the most important work of our time This opinion undoubtedly annoyed Picasso Jealousy of the other man's success goaded him to greater innovations In his view the new art would have to match the sense of endless discovery that science and technology were offering The 1900 Exposition Universelle had already shown the latest marvels in engineering If painting wanted to keep the public's attention instead of merely reproducing what the eye saw it had to generate its own reality on the surface of the canvas a reality more vivid than and bearing only the most cursory resemblance to anything found in nature Matisse was also a catalyst in that he was the one who introduced Picasso to African sculptures Max Jacob recalls Matisse took a black wooden statuette from a table and showed it to Picasso It was the first piece of Negro wooden art Picasso held onto it all evening The next morning when I arrived at the studio the floor was strewn with sheets of paper and on each sheet was drawn the head of a woman all of them were more or less the same one eye an oversized nose attached to the mouth and a lock of hair on the shoulders Cubism was thus born cited in Janine Warnod Washboat Days New York Grossman Publishers Warnod 1972 p 128 Picture and Gift Journal, 1939 Arts Magazine, 1984 LIFE, 1950-01-16 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Artbibliographies Modern, 1993 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 The New York Times Magazine, 1957 Everything Is Cinema Richard Brody, 2008-05-13 When Jean Luc Godard exemplary director of the French New Wave wed the ideals of filmmaking to the realities of autobiography and current events he changed the nature of cinema Among the greatest cinematic innovations Godard's films shift fluidly from fiction to documentary from criticism to art Similarly his persona projects shifting images cultural hero impassioned loner shrewd businessman Hailed by filmmakers as a if not the key influence Godard has entered the modern canon a figure as mysterious as he is indispensable In Everything is Cinema critic Richard Brody has amassed hundreds of interviews with friends family and collaborators to demystify the elusive director and paint the fullest picture yet of his life and work Paying as much attention to Godard's revolutionary technical inventions as to the political and emotional forces of the postwar world Brody traces an arc from the director's early critical writing through his popular success with Breathless and Contempt to the grand vision of his later years He vividly depicts Godard's wealthy conservative family his fluid and often disturbing politics his tumultuous dealings with fellow filmmakers and his troubled relations with women Jacket
