Pennies On A Dead Woman's Eyes By:

Pennies on a Dead Woman's Eyes Marcia Muller, 2011-10-01 It looked like a lost cause. Convicted of a brutal society murder in 1956, Lis Benedict had served a long sentence and just been released from jail. Then in a last desperate attempt to clear the Benedict name, her daughter Judy convinces All Souls Legal Cooperative to take her mother's case before the Historical Tribunal. Sharon McCone loves a challenge but has little affection for the cold and unlikable Lis. Then suddenly the woman in question is dead; a vicious threat is scrawled in red paint across the front of Sharon's house and San Francisco's number one private investigator is following a fresh trail of death that leads back to a wild debutante, a prestigious think tank, and the power politics of the 1950s, all in search of a killer who has engineered a fatal cover up and built a brilliant career on murder.

Dead Midnight Marcia Muller, 2008-11-15 New York Times bestselling author Marcia Muller brings you another thrilling mystery with her famous private investigator Sharon McCone. Sharon McCone has decided to throw herself into work so she can get past her brother's suicide, but the wrongful death suit she is working on hits too close to home. It's a civil case in which the family of a young zine employee claims his suicide was the result of his company's treatment of him. In his final journal entry, Roger Nagasawa describes his fatal plunge from the San Francisco Bridge as being swept away from sadness. With the help of her friend J. D. Smith, McCone investigates the InSite offices and soon learns of its publisher's less than professional activities. She also learns that Roger had been afraid for his life since he was a witness to computer espionage. Faced with the death of her friend Smith and the sudden disappearance of Roger's associate, McCone must keep one step ahead of the game and solve this mystery or else become the next victim.

Marcia Muller and the Female Private Eye Alexander N. Howe, Christine A. Jackson, 2014-11-01 In 1977 Marcia Muller invaded the all-male domain of detective literature and within a decade was established as the mother of the female hardboiled private eye. She is now the author of four detective series, including the critically acclaimed Sharon McCone series of more than two dozen novels. This collection critically assesses Marcia Muller's writing and reevaluates current critical views on women's detective fiction in general. In the first two of the book's three sections, essays explore Muller's engagement with modern and postmodern feminism, ethnicity, and the socially underprivileged. The third section focuses on one of Muller's major themes: the trauma of history. Drawing from the feminist, historicist, mythic, psychoanalytic, and cultural approaches found in all three sections, the conclusion offers a panoramic perspective on Muller's accomplishments.
