Pennsylvania German Arts Irwin Richman, 2001 There has never been a book like this intertwining the arts and artifacts of both the traditional and the evolving worlds Folk art and quilts are here but so is the work of Precisionist painter Charles Demuth and Abstract Expressionist painter Franz Kline Objects range from needlework pottery furniture and glass to paper paintings and metals including gold and silver The extensive historical text is illustrated with over 350 color photographs to showcase works of great beauty The Landis Family: A Pennsylvania German Family Album Irwin

Richman, 2008-08-11 The Landis family of Landis Valley was ordinary and extraordinary at the same time Its members were typical Pennsylvania Germans of their era focused on farming and family yet they also traveled edited magazines and became the founders of the Landis Valley Museum The Landis family settled in Lancaster County in the 18th century where Henry Harrison Landis and his wife Emma Caroline Landis raised their children Henry Kinzer George Diller and Nettie Mae in a cross cultural environment Descended from Mennonite and Reformed Church families the Landis family formed an appreciation for both cultures and recognizing the valuable contributions of Pennsylvania Germans to American culture they collected images and objects to chronicle their unique way of life Using historic photographs many never before published The Landis Family A Pennsylvania German Family Album provides insights into the family life customs and agricultural traditions of this unique region The Worlds of Jacob Eichholtz Thomas R. Ryan, 2003

The Worlds of Jacob Eichholtz explores the life and times of an oft overlooked figure in early American art Jacob Eichholtz 1776 1842 began his career in the metal trades but with much practice some encouragement from his friend Thomas Sully and a few weeks instruction from America s preeminent portraitist Gilbert Stuart he transformed himself into one of the nation s most productive portrait painters Eichholtz worked primarily in the Middle Atlantic region from his homes in Lancaster and Philadelphia While Stuart and Sully concentrated on the elite of American society Eichholtz captured the images of a rising middle class with its craftsmen merchants doctors lawyers and their families From a lifetime that spanned the American Revolution to the Industrial Revolution and a career that produced more than 800 paintings Eichholtz offers a collective portrait of early American culture in the first half of the nineteenth century The Worlds of Jacob Eichholtz begins with four insightful essays by Thomas Ryan David Jaffee Carol Faill and Peter Seibert that examine Eichholtz s life and work The second part of the book a visual essay brings together for the first time more than 100 color reproductions of Eichholtz s work These images include over 60 oil on canvas portraits more than 30 profiles on panel and seven of the landscape historical or biblical paintings he produced Also illustrated are artifacts associated with Eichholtz and his family examples of the tinsmith s and coppersmith s trade and the work of artists who influenced his career The Worlds of Jacob Eichholtz promises to be the finest color catalog of Eichholtz s oeuvre for years to come This book made possible by the Richard C von Hess Foundation accompanies a major three part exhibition that will run concurrently at the Lancaster County Historical Society the Heritage Center Museum of

Lancaster County and the Phillips Museum of Art at Franklin Marshall College from April through December 2003
