Penny Serenade:

Giant Marilyn Ann Moss, 2015-08-04 Marilyn Ann Moss's Giant examines the life of one of the most influential directors to work in Hollywood from the 1930s to the 1960s George Stevens directed such popular and significant films as Shane Giant A Place in the Sun and The Diary of Anne Frank He was the first to pair Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy on film in Woman of the Year Through the study of Stevens's life and his production history Moss also presents a glimpse of the workings of the classic Hollywood studio system in its glory days Moss documents Stevens's role as a powerful director who often had to battle the heads of major studios to get his films made his way She traces the four decades Stevens was a major Hollywood player and icon from his earliest days at the Hal Roach Studios where he learned to be a cameraman writer and director for Laurel and Hardy features up to when his films made millions at the box office and were graced by actors such as Elizabeth Taylor James Dean Alan Ladd and Montgomery Clift Quasi Una Fantasia Theodor Adorno, 2020-05-05 This collection covers a wide range of topics from a moving study of Bizet's Carmen to an entertainingly caustic exploration of the hierarchies of the auditorium Especially significant is Adorno's dialectical portrait of Stravinsky in which Adorno both reconsiders and refines his damning indictment of the composer in Philosophy on Modern Music Throughout Adorno is sustained by the conviction that music is supremely human because it is capable of communicating inhumanity while resisting it His belief in the benevolent and transformative power of music reverberates throughout these writings The Runaway Bride Elizabeth Kendall, 2002 Written with erudition insight and enthusiasm Runaway Bride is a brilliant mix of film and social history that renews our vision and broadens our understanding of some of the best loved movies ever made and the complex Depression influenced circumstances from which they were born Heritage Auctions Vintage Movie Poster Auction Catalog #7008, Dallas, TX Grey Smith, 2009-06 Billboard, 1949-01-22 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Heritage Signature Vintage Movie Poster Auction #636, 2006 Vente d affiches de ciné ma les 12 et 13 juillet 2006 Dallas Texas USA Strains of Utopia Caryl Flinn, 1992-06-15 When Dmitri Tiomkin thanked Johannes Brahms Johann Strauss Richard Strauss and Richard Wagner upon accepting the Academy Award for his score of The High and the Mighty in 1954 he was honoring a romantic style that had characterized Hollywood's golden age of film composition from the mid 1930s to the 1950s Exploring elements of romanticism in film scores of composers ranging from Erich Korngold to Bernard Herrmann Caryl Flinn argues that films tended to link music to the sense of an idealized lost past Just as the score of Gone with the Wind captured the grandeur of the antebellum South others prompted flashbacks or suggested moments of emotional intensity and sensuality Maintaining that many films treated this utopian impulse as a female trait Flinn investigates the ways Hollywood genre films particularly film noir and melodrama sustained the connection between music and nostalgia utopia and femininity The author situates Hollywood film scores within a romantic aesthetic ideology noting compositional and theoretical affinities between the film composers and Wagner with emphasis on authorship creativity and femininity Pointing to the lasting impact of romanticism on film music Flinn draws from poststructuralist Marxist feminist and psychoanalytic criticism to offer fresh insights into the broad theme of music as an excessive utopian condition

Film, Music, Memory Berthold Hoeckner, 2019-11-27 Film has shaped modern society in part by changing its cultures of memory Film Music Memory reveals that this change has rested in no small measure on the mnemonic powers of music As films were consumed by growing American and European audiences their soundtracks became an integral part of individual and collective memory Berthold Hoeckner analyzes three critical processes through which music influenced this new culture of memory storage retrieval and affect Films store memory through an archive of cinematic scores In turn a few bars from a soundtrack instantly recall the image that accompanied them and along with it the affective experience of the movie Hoeckner examines films that reflect directly on memory whether by featuring an amnesic character a traumatic event or a surge of nostalgia As the history of cinema unfolded movies even began to recall their own history through quotations remakes and stories about how cinema contributed to the soundtrack of people s lives Ultimately Film Music Memory demonstrates that music has transformed not only what we remember about the cinematic experience but also how we relate to memory itself
