Pennyweight Windows Donald Revell, 2005 A major collection from an increasingly important poet for our times The Antioch Review Till One Day the Sun Shall Shine More Brightly Derek Pollard, 2020-01-29 Since the publication of From the Abandoned Cities in 1983 Donald Revell has been among the more consistent influencers in American poetry and poetics Yet his work has achieved the status it has his honors include fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Guggenheim Foundation and awards from the PEN Center USA and American Poetry Review in a manner that has often tended to belie its abiding significance This collection of essays reviews and interviews is designed to ignite a more wide ranging critical appraisal of Revell's writing from his fourteen collections of poems to his acclaimed translations of French symbolist and modernist poets to his artfully constructed literary criticism Contributors such as Marjorie Perloff Stephanie Burt Dan Beachy Quick and Bruce Bond examine key elements in and across Revell's work from his visionary postmodernism Our words can never say the mystery of our meanings but there they are spoken and meaning worlds to us to his poetics of radical attention And so a poem has nothing to do with picking and choosing with the mot juste and reflection in tranquility It is a plain record of one's entire presence in order to enlarge our understanding of how and why that work has come to occupy the place that it has in contemporary American letters The Cambridge Companion to the Sonnet A. D. Cousins, Peter Howarth, 2011-02-03 Beginning with the early masters of the sonnet form Dante and Petrarch the Companion examines the reinvention of the sonnet across times and cultures from Europe to America In doing so it considers sonnets as diverse as those by William Shakespeare William Wordsworth George Herbert and e e cummings The chapters explore how we think of the sonnet as a lyric and what is involved in actually trying to write one The book includes a lively discussion between three distinguished contemporary poets Paul Muldoon Jeff Hilson and Meg Tyler on the experience of writing a sonnet and a chapter which traces the sonnet's diffusion across manuscript print screen and the internet A fresh and authoritative overview of this major poetic form the Companion expertly guides the reader through the sonnet's history and development into the global multimedia phenomenon it is today The New American Poetry of Engagement Ann Keniston, Jeffrey Gray, 2012-08-17 This anthology of poetry collects 21st century American works by both established and emerging poets that deal with the public events government policies ecological and political threats economic uncertainties and large scale violence that have largely defined the century to date But these 138 poems by 50 poets do not simply describe lament or bear witness to contemporary events they also explore the linguistic temporal and imaginative problems involved in doing so In this way the anthology offers a comprehensive look at contemporary American poetry demonstrating that poets are moving at once toward a new engagement with public concerns and toward a focus on the problems of representation A detailed introduction by the editors along with poetics statements by many of the poets add depth and context to a book that will appeal to anyone interested in the state and evolution of contemporary American poetry
