The Challenge of Public Pension Reform in Advanced and Emerging Economies Mr.Benedict J. Clements,Mr.David Coady, Frank Eich, Mr.Sanjeev Gupta, Mr.Alvar Kangur, Baoping Shang, Mauricio Soto, 2013-01-25 Pension reform is high on the policy agenda of many advanced and emerging market economies In advanced economies the challenge is generally to contain future increases in public pension spending as the population ages In emerging market economies the challenges are often different Where pension coverage is extensive the issues are similar to those in advanced economies Where pension coverage is low the key challenge will be to expand coverage in a fiscally sustainable manner This volume examines the outlook for public pension spending over the coming decades and the options for reform in 52 advanced and emerging market economies

The Challenge of Public Pension Reform in Advanced and Emerging Economies International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2011-12-28 This paper reviews past trends in public pension spending and provides projections for 27 advanced and 25 emerging economies over 2011 2050 In constructing these projections the paper incorporates the impact of recent pension reforms and highlights the key assumptions underlying these projections and associated risks The paper also presents reform options to address future pension spending pressures in the advanced and emerging economies These reforms mainly increasing retirement ages reducing replacement rates or increasing payroll taxes are discussed in the context of their role in fiscal consolidation and their implications for both equity and economic growth In addition the paper examines the challenge of emerging economies of expanding coverage in a fiscally sustainable manner

Pension Reform in the Baltics, Russia, and other Countries of the Former Soviet Union (BRO) International Monetary Fund, 1998-02-01 Despite their increasing fiscal burden the public pension systems of BRO countries are failing to provide adequate social protection Although there is a broad consensus about the need for pension reforms BRO countries are debating whether to embark on systemic reforms or whether to correct the distortions in their pay as you go PAYG pension systems The paper reviews the measures taken by BRO countries during the transition period to address their pension problems and examines the options for further reform It makes a strong case for a gradual reform approach aimed at establishing a multi pillar system over the long run but initially focused on implementation of high quality reforms of the PAYG system

Increasing Dependency Ratios, Pensions, and Tax Smoothing Mr.Vito Tanzi, Efraim Sadka, 1998-09-01 The implication of increasing dependency ratios for pay as you go defined benefit pension programs are examined Modifications aimed at smoothing contributions while maintaining benefits intact are analyzed for both open and closed economies

Should Public Pensions be Funded? Mr.Richard Hemming, 1998-03-01 This paper outlines some of the arguments for and against the funding of public pensions with a view to establishing whether there is an economic basis for judging funding to be superior to pay as you go PAYG It is argued that funding does not have a clear advantage and the case for a shift from PAYG to funding is thus an uneasy one There is nonetheless growing advocacy of funded public pensions as part of an ideal pension system which raises more general issues about the role of the public sector in pension provision

Implications for Savings of Aging in the Asian “Tigers” Mr.Peter S. Heller,Mr.Steven A. Symansky,1997-10-01

Significant aging is projected for many high saving emerging economies of East and Southeast Asia By 2025 the share of the elderly in their populations will at least double in most of these countries The share of the young will fall Aging populations could adversely affect saving rates in these economies particularly after 2025 For the world one may observe that initially the Asian Tigers could become increasingly important for world savings reflecting their increased weight in the world economy their high saving and growth rates and the aging of the industrial countries After 2025 the aging of the Tigers may reinforce the tendency toward a declining world saving rate
