The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo, 2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit s presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha character It brings blessing through comprehending the risen Christ by faith It also provides an opportunity for a visible act of proclamation of the Lord s death Theology Journal Papers Other papers in the theology journal focus upon Andrew Fuller Secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society in 1792 His theological perspective made such an impact on missionary thinking in the nineteenth century The life and work of Rodger Williams is examined until his work on Rhode Island One paper considers Alexander Carson s use of the theme of the atonement as an apologetic tool The essence of Carson s argument is that the uniqueness of the Gospel with its focus on the atonement could never have been worked out by the human mind demonstrates the truth of God s existence There are further papers on Melchizedek with a particular emphasis of his relation to the pre-existent Christ Plus a study of the doxologies of 1 Timothy setting out Paul s various reasons for including them in his letter They would challenge the heretical teachings in Ephesus and particularly provide the believers with a true understanding of the only true God Moreover they would deeply influence their lives and lead them to witness and truly worship him A further paper on the centrifugal and centripetal aspects of mission presents us with a challenge for reaching this generation I hope the Proceedings Papers on Mission and Theology will challenge all who read them Of course it should be understood that the views presented remain those of the contributors Hamilton Moore Editor
