Reverberations of Faith Walter Brueggemann,2002-01-01 Explores more than 100 Old Testament themes Each entry states the consensus reading identifies what is at issue in the interpretive question and discusses the practical significance of the issue for the church today in part by suggesting contemporary connections to the ancient texts

Reward, Punishment, and Forgiveness Joze Krasovec,2014-09-03 This book deals with central and universal issues of reward punishment and forgiveness for the first time in a compact and comprehensive way Until now these themes have received far too little attention in scholarly research both in their own right and in their interrelationship The scope of this study is to present them in relation to the foundations of our culture These and related issues are treated primarily within the Hebrew Bible using the methods of literary analysis The centrality of these themes in all religions and all cultures has resulted however in a comparative investigation drawing attention to the problem of terminology the importance of Greek culture for the European tradition and the fusion of Greek and Jewish Christian cultures in our modern philosophical and theological systems This broad perspective shows that the biblical personalist understanding of divine authority and of human righteousness or guilt provides the personalist key to the search for reconciliation in a divided world

The Church of Christ Everett Ferguson,1996 By systematically examining the New Testament's teaching Ferguson unveils a comprehensive model of the church that is both biblically centered and relevant to a world on the verge of the twenty first century

Holiness and Community in 2 Cor 6:14-7:1 J. Ayodeji Adewuya,2011-02-01 This book examines 2 Cor 6 14 7

1 and argues that its theological message is communal holiness. It culminates in an attempt to posit a Pauline theology of corporate sanctification in the Corinthian correspondence. Paul's view of sanctification, it is argued, should be seen as multifaceted, relational, communal, ethical, and mission oriented. Thus, a coherent picture of Pauline teaching on holiness in the Corinthian correspondence emerges from this book. For Paul, the focus of God's redemptive activity is primarily the community and not the individual. Paul's view on holiness has to do with communal holiness within the people of God, the goal of which is to make God known to the wider society. In sum, this book argues that the teaching on holiness should not be and cannot be satisfactorily explained in terms of the individual but only as the individual stands in relation to the community of faith. Thus, the conclusion offers a corrective to some strands of modern interpretation that emphasize the individualistic experiential aspects of Christian holiness, thus tending to reduce Christian holiness to morality.

Scribes and Translators Natalio Fernández Marcos, 1993. This volume, based on recently published Old Latin material, provides fascinating information and discussion on the textual pluralism attested by the Hebrew texts and versions of the books of Kings, an intriguing page in the history of the biblical texts.

In Search of "Ancient Israel" Philip R. Davies, 1992-06-01. The appearance in 1992 of In Search of Ancient Israel generated a still raging controversy about the historical reality of what biblical scholars call Ancient Israel. But its argument not only takes in the problematic relationship between Iron Age Palestinian archaeology and the biblical Israel but also outlines the processes that created the literature of the Hebrew Bible, the ideological matrix, the scribal milieu, and the cultural adoption of a national literary archive as religious scripture as part of the process of creating Judaism. While challenging the whole spectrum of scholarly consensus about the origins of Israel and its scriptures, it is written more in the style of a textbook for students than a monograph for scholars because its author believes it offers an agenda for the next generation of biblical scholars. In this reader-friendly polemic, Davies brilliantly addresses an essential issue and at numerous points represents a vanguard in biblical studies.

Robert B. Coote, Interpretation. A rich mine of provocative quotations will provoke considerable opposition and debate and deserves to be read and reflected on by all biblical scholars.

Keith Whitlam, SOTS Book List.

A Celtic Model of Ministry Jerry C. Doherty, 2003. Why is the Christian Church declining in numbers and effectiveness in the twenty-first century? In A Celtic Model of Ministry, Jerry Doherty, experienced clergyman and Celtic scholar, shows that the decline is caused by a crisis of individualism, a crisis of faith, and a crisis of lifestyle. Doherty responds to these crises by providing a Celtic spirituality by way of ministry of early Celtic Christians in Ireland, Wales, Scotland, Brittany, and the Isle of Man. He provides a model for ministry today in the local congregation and a guideline for the successful future of the Church modeled after the early Celtic communities. Doherty applies the model in congregational development studies and ministry. He explores the problems that have caused the decline of the Church and how paradigms of ministry in current use are no longer adequate. In A Celtic Model of Ministry, Doherty proposes that a new model for thinking and building ministry today, especially in the local congregation, may be found in early

Celtic Christian communities Churches need to be a spiritual center a learning center and a community center A Celtic Model of Ministry uses Celtic spirituality in a practical way for ministry in the local congregation and is written primarily for professionals clergy and church workers but can be easily read by lay people Chapters are A Crisis of Individualism The Solution Community Celtic Spirituality and Community Creating Community A Crisis of Faith and A Crisis of Lifestyle

Foundations of Spiritual Formation Paul Pettit, This textbook for introductory spiritual formation courses presents the fundamentals and practices of the discipline This collection includes presentations by several well known evangelical scholars including Gordon Johnston Darrell Bock Richard Averbeck Klaus Issler and others Paul, the Community, and Progressive Sanctification James M. Howard, 2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God's transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God's glory to the broader creation
