People Of A Compassionate God Creating Welcoming Congregations:

People of a Compassionate God Janet Forsythe Fishburn, 2003 A comprehensive introduction to how congregations implement change around issues of greater inclusiveness and openness Many congregations are facing accelerated change in the communities to whom they minister Responding to these changes means welcoming persons of different ethnic backgrounds and sexual orientation into the full fellowship of the church As anyone who has lived through such a transition can attest opening the life of the congregation to this kind of diversity can be a traumatic destabilizing time In order to help churches who follow this difficult route Janet Fishburn and the contributors to this volume have engaged in a strenuous study of congregations that have consciously chosen to become more open and affirming toward segments of the population that are different than the church's current membership Using theological educational and sociological tools they seek to understand how congregations succeed in consciously becoming open and affirming of diversity and how they fail Contributors include Janet Fishburn Mary Elizabeth Moore Linda Vogel Nelle Slate and Elizabeth Box Price The Spirituality of Welcoming Dr. Ron Wolfson, 2011-06-22 A practical guide for envisioning and transforming your synagogue into a powerful new congregation of welcoming learning and healing The new synagogue we envision is a spiritual center for all those who set foot inside it It is a kehillah kedoshah a sacred community where relationships are paramount where worship is engaging where everyone is learning where repair of the world is a moral imperative where healing is offered where personal and institutional transformation are embraced The times are ripe for this spiritual call from the Introduction So often we want our congregations to be more more compelling more member focused more spiritual and yet more useful for our daily lives Through reflection examples tips and exercises and incorporating the fruits of Synagogue 2000 now Synagogue 3000 a groundbreaking decade long program investigating the challenges facing modern synagogues this inspiring handbook both establishes a sound foundation for why a deep hospitality is crucial for the survival of today's spiritual communities and dives into the practical hands on how of turning your congregation into a place of invitation and openness that includes Prayer that is engaging uplifting and spiritually moving Institutional deepening that is possible because of an openness to change Study that engages adults and families as well as children Good deeds the work of social justice as a commitment of each and every member An ambience of welcome that creates a culture of warmth and outreach Healing that offers comfort and support at times of illness and loss and much more Reckoning Methodism Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-03-29 Reckoning Methodism addresses the brokenness of The United Methodist Church UMC in the United States Homosexuality is but one of several fault lines with decades long histories in this predominantly White denomination Demographic shifts racism and imperialism are heavily implicated in the current state of division What then is the true nature and mission of this church The UMC is the public church divided Distinct missional theologies arise from competing commitments and priorities When Methodist programmatic initiatives such as vital congregations environmental witness and volunteers in mission fail to account for these differences denominational unity is weakened Constructively this book seeks historical clarity collective repentance charismatic learning and institutional courage as United Methodists reckon with inherited animosities and divisions This book provides no answers or programmatic fixes Rather it provides possibilities for repairing past harms as United Methodists seek ways to continue living out their Wesleyan faith Reckoning with the public church divided we glimpse the nature and mission of the church not only as it has been but also as it could be Podcast interview with GCAH Out of Exodus Darryl W. Stephens, Michael I. Alleman, Andrea Brown, Ruth A. Daugherty, Mary Merriman, 2018-05-02 Biblical and progressive Mainline and charismatic Faithful and questioning This book is not what you think it is The story of the Exodus is told in parallel with testimonies sermons and personal reflections from a congregation in Lancaster Pennsylvania challenging the reader to a journey of faith Along the way it becomes clear that open and affirming ministry transcends LGBTQIA inclusion It is also about race relations poverty generational change divorce immigration and any other human created barrier to loving God and neighbor Tools for the journey Finding a new voice amid profound social change is a difficult and vitally important task Many congregations and entire denominations are in the process of figuring out how to express a new voice of faith particularly in our understanding of sexuality and gender Christians are experiencing nothing less than a holy disruption caused by the Spirit among us The book concludes with a discussion of challenges to community and ministry Helpful appendices provide congregational resources and discussion questions for group study The stories in this book include experiences of and with persons in many denominational settings Roman Catholic Unitarian Universalist Presbyterian Church in Taiwan Metropolitan Community Church United Church of Christ United Brethren Church of the Brethren Society of Friends Quakers and United Methodist This is truly an ecumenical journey Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life The Welcoming Congregation Scott W. Alexander, This manual prepared by the UUA s Office of Lesbian and Gay Concerns is designed to help interested congregations become more welcoming places for the gay lesbian and bisexual people in their midst and in the wider community P 1 A Living Tradition Dr. Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore,2013-09-17 This book engages in a critical recovery and reconstruction of the Wesleyan theological legacy in relation to current theological concepts and Christian practices with the intent to present opportunities for future directions The contributors address urgent questions from the contexts in which people now live particularly questions regarding social holiness and Christian practices To that end the authors focus on historical figures John Wesley Susanna Wesley Harry Hoosier and Richard Allen historical developments such as the ways in which African Americans appropriated Methodism and theological themes such as holistic healing work and vocation and prophetic grace The purpose is not to provide a comprehensive historical and theological coverage of the tradition but to exemplify approaches to historical recovery and reconstruction that follow appropriately the mentorship of John Wesley and the living tradition that has emerged from his witness Contributors W Stephen Gunter Richard P Heitzenrater Diane Leclerc William B McClain Randy L Maddox Rebekah L Miles Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Amy G Oden and Elaine A Robinson

Formation in Faith Sondra Higgins Matthaei,2008-01-01 The ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaei casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church s practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church s communion of grace Matthaei challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices Wising Up Kathy Black,Heather Murray Elkins,2010-04-01 Wising Up provides rituals and guidance for women as they age It helps them make the often difficult life transitions wisely and in the context of their faith communities Instead of focusing exclusively on time worn thresholds such as menopause marriage and divorce and dying the book contains affirming rituals on coming to terms with the changes in one's body learning to live with and depend on an item like a walker or a hearing aid giving up one's driver's license deciding how to give away one's household contents and being orphaned In addition to the rituals and guidelines on how to create one's own rituals the book contains a number of short stories hymns prayers quotations and poems to help ease women through the aging process Contributors Susan Beehler Teresa Berger Kathy Black Ruth Duck Heather Murray Elkins Brigitte Enzner Probst Martha Whitmore Hickman Martha Ann Kirk Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Susan Roll Deborah Sokolove Linda J Vogel and Janet Walton Engaged Teaching in Theology and Religion Renee K. Harrison, Jennie S.
