People Of Migrants:

We Are All Migrants Gregory Feldman, 2015-05-27 Now more than ever questions of citizenship migration and political action dominate public debate In this powerful and polemical book Gregory Feldman argues that We Are All Migrants By challenging the division between those considered citizens and migrants Feldman shows that both subjects confront disempowerment uncertainty and atomization inseparable from the rise of mass society the isolation of the laboring individual and the global proliferation of rationalized practices of security and production Yet this very atomization the ubiquitous condition of migrant hood pushes the individual to ask an existential and profoundly political question do I matter in this world Feldman argues that for particular individuals to answer this question affirmatively they must be empowered to jointly constitute the places they inhabit with others Feldman ultimately argues that to overcome the condition of migrant hood people must be empowered to constitute their own sovereign spaces from their particular standpoints Rather than base these spaces on categorical types of people these spaces emerge only as particular people present themselves to each other while questioning how they should inhabit it

Migrants and Refugees at UK Borders Yasmin Ibrahim, 2022-02-27 This book investigates the hostile environment and politics of visceral and racial denigration which have characterised responses to refugees and migrants within the UK and Europe in recent years The European migrant crisis from 2015 onwards has been characterised by an extremely intimidating atmosphere which denies the basic humanity of refugees and migrants Deep rooted in Western Enlightenment trajectory this racially driven politics is linked to the Western theories of scientific superiority which went on to become the basis of eugenics and coloniality as part of modernity Focusing on the migrant crisis Brexit and the impacts of the global pandemic this book unpicks the waves of crises and neuroses about the Other in Europe and the UK The chapters analyse the rhetoric of camps refrigerated death lorries the notion of channel crossings and accidental drownings the formation of relationship with border architecture such as the razor wire and corporeal resistance in detention centres through hunger strike In examining such specific sites of rhetorical articulation policy formation social imagination and its incumbent visuality the chapters deconstruct the intersection of dominant ideologies power knowledge paradigms including the media as part of the public sphere and their combined re mediation of the dispossessed humans in the shores and borders of Europe This important interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to researchers of migration humanitarianism geography global development sociology and communication studies

Bodies at Borders: Analyzing the Objectification and Containment of Migrants at Border Crossing Louise Ryan, Izabela Grabowska, Vidal Romero, María Encarnación López, 2023-12-22 By the end of 2020 the number of forcibly displaced people globally had reached 82.4 million as a result of persecution conflict violence human rights violations and events seriously disturbing public order UNHCR 2021 Efforts to prevent these people from crossing national boundaries have resulted in draconian legislation and the vilification of migrants at various international borders In the Mediterranean at the border with fortress

Europe there have been thousands of fatalities as migrants risk the treacherous crossing in tiny boats The so called weaponization of migration is apparent in recent events on the Polish Belarussian border as hundreds of asylum seekers are trapped between rival forces of armed soldiers Under the UK government's hostile environment policy many legal immigration routes have been closed and the rights of asylum seekers have been severely curtailed The so called migrant caravan which began in Honduras in October 2018 prompted the US and Mexican governments to deploy active duty military officers to the border creating more chaos in the area

The Standard of Living Among One Hundred Negro Migrant Families in

Philadelphia Sadie Tanner Mossell,1921 Migrant Hospitalities in the Mediterranean Vanessa Grotti,Marc Brightman,2021-04-22 This open access book applies insights from the anthropology of hospitality to illuminate ethnographic accounts of migrant reception in various parts of the Mediterranean The contributors ground the idea and practice of hospitality in concrete ethnographic settings and challenge how the casual usage of Derridean or Kantian notions of hospitality can blur the boundaries between social scales and between metaphor and practice Host guest relations are multiplied through pregnancy and childbirth and new forms of hospitality emerge with the need to offer mortuary practices for dead strangers helping to illuminate the spatial and scalar dimensions of morality and politics in Mediterranean migrant reception

Museums, the Media and Refugees Katherine Goodnow,Jack Lohman,Philip Marfleet,2008-03-01 Across countries and time asylum seekers and refugees have been represented in a variety of ways In some representations they appear negatively as dangers threatening to over run a country or a region with floods of incompatible strangers In others the same people are portrayed positively with compassion and pictured as desperately in need of assistance How these competing perceptions are received has significant consequences for determining public policy human rights international agreements and the realization of cultural diversity and so it is imperative to understand how these images are perpetuated To this end this volume reflects on museum practice and the contexts stories and images of asylum seekers and refugees prevalent in our mass media Based on case studies from Australia New Zealand and the United Kingdom the overall findings are illustrative of narratives and images common to museums and the media throughout the world They aim to challenge political rhetoric and populist media imagery and consider what forms of dissent are likely to be sustained and what narratives ultimately break through and can lead to empathy and positive political change
