People Of The Moonshell A Western River Journal:

People of the Moonshell Nancy M. Peterson, 1984 People of the Moonshell is an award winning history of the Platte River the primary way west during the frontier era Peterson focuses on people some well known some unknown who had some extraordinary experience along the Platte Subjects range from Spanish explorers to Mormon settlers from Buffalo Bill Cody and Robert Louis Stevenson to Native Americans fighting for their homeland Written largely from diaries and journals the tales weave into an overview of Plate River history described by the El Paso Corral of Westerners as one of those rare treasures Walking in Two Worlds Nancy M. Peterson, 2006 The author tells the stories of twelve mixed blood women who steeped in the tradition of their Indian mothers but forced into the world of their white fathers fought to find their identities in a rapidly changing world In an era when most white women had limited opportunities outside the home these mix blood women often became nationally recognized leaders in the fight for Native American rights They took the tools and training the whites provided and used them to help their people They found differing paths medicine music crafts the classroom the lecture hall the stage the written word and walked strong and tall These women did far more than survive they extended a hand to help their people find a place in a hard new future Back cover The Waterways Journal, 1989-04 Nebraska History Addison Erwin Sheldon, James Lee Sellers, James C.
