The Stendhal Bicentennial Papers Hofstra University, 1987-09-09 This valuable compilation of articles offers original historical biographical and literary perspectives on the works of Stendhal Eleven essays plunge the reader into Stendhal s mythological universe providing new insights into the network of symbols images and obsessional themes that run through his works This multi faceted collection examines Stendhal as the problematic subject for a biography as autobiographer in his own right as journalist novelist and innovator in the realm of fictional devices and as the great representative of that literature of ideas first acclaimed by Balzac Topics addressed include the writer s own enigmatic persona his autobiographical writings his encounter with George Sand and his journalistic career in Italy as well as the structure imposed on his novels by an Oedipal conflict he himself perceives in pre Freudian terms his experiments with multiple narrative point of view and a feminist perspective on his use of the epistolary form as a device to enhance the plot      Lessing and the Enlightenment Alexej Ugrinsky, 1986-08-18 This essay collection grew out of a Hofstra University conference on the life works and influence of Gotthold Ephraim Lessing the eighteenth century German playwright critic and philosopher who essentially established a new national literature in Germany during the Enlightenment The volume is divided into two main sections in which various scholars confront and reevaluate two contrasting aspects of Lessing's character: the irrational poet and the rational thinker. In the first section Lessing's aesthetics are discussed. His link to English literature as well as his influence upon the then emerging novel are the subject of special consideration here. In the second section Lessing's philosophical connection to traditions such as utopianism, classical republicanism and eighteenth century humanism is discussed. Also considered are Lessing's intellectual connections with Rumanian literature, feminist and other ideological interpretations of his works and his relation to some of his contemporaries. An introductory article stresses current and future trends in Lessing scholarship.

The Cumulative Book Index, 1985. A world list of books in the English language.

Dostoevski and the Human Condition After a Century Alexej Ugrinsky, Frank S. Lambasa, Valija K.

Ozols, 1986-10-21. Among nineteenth century novelists there is probably none who speaks so directly to the modern reader as Fedor Dostoevski. His visions of alienation and terror have not lost their power to shake our complacency even in this present age hardened as it is to violence and social decay. In this stimulating collection of essays a distinguished group of specialists in comparative literature and the social sciences explores the themes and problems with which Dostoevski struggled as both a writer and as a man and assesses their continuing relevance to the modern world. Encompassing a wide range of topics and perspectives this collection enriches our knowledge and appreciation of a writer whose prophetic visions of alienation and explorations of the dark side of the human psyche continue to fascinate readers and students of the human condition.

Scenarios of Modernist Disintegration Timothy Schiff, 1985-11-14. This is the first comprehensive analysis of the life and work of Trygve Andersen. Stressing that Andersen was a transitional writer, Schiff deftly shows him torn between defunct traditions of the recent past and a sterile, hopeless future. Andersen's prose fiction, according to Schiff, contains elegant, finely crafted works of art. His works are highly relevant to today's reader for they reflect some of the most compelling characteristics of the Western experience of the last century and a half: despair, isolation, ambivalence and equivocality. Throughout his commentary Schiff makes it possible to understand Andersen's works in light of a broader cultural perspective. Much about Andersen, which has remained shrouded in mystery, comes to light here. Furthermore, Schiff offers many new insights into Andersen's themes and ideas, substantially revising previous notions about this frequently misunderstood artist's work.

Goethe in the Twentieth Century Hofstra University, 1987-06-16. Born in 1749, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe was one of the giants of world literature and the last European to embody the multi-faceted expertise of the Renaissance personality. Assembled to commemorate the 150th anniversary of his death, the essays included here are appropriately written from a variety of perspectives: literary, humanistic and scientific. A genuinely interdisciplinary collection, this volume is witness to the powerful influence Goethe's works have had on a wide range of subjects, from fiction, drama and art to physics, psychology and psychiatry. The collection also demonstrates the extent to which his ideas have transcended national boundaries as well as historic ones      Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982      Klaus Rifbjerg Charl S.
