Angelinetum and Other Poems Giovanni Marrasio, 2016-06-13 Giovanni Marrasio was esteemed in the Renaissance as the first to revive the ancient Latin elegy and his Angelinetum or Angelina's Garden and other poems explores that genre in all its variety from love poetry to a description of a court masque to political panegyric to poetic exchanges with famous humanists of the day The Works of Virgil Vergilius Maro, 1883 P. Vergili Maronis Opera Virgil, 1883 P. Vergili Maronis opera: Aeneid, books 7-12 Virgil, 1875 P. Vergili Maronis opera. The works of Virgil, with a comm. by J. Conington (H. Evans, 2025-08-01 While virtually all early medieval historians wrote about God they did not do so in the same way Rather than taking their comments about God at face value then as has been the case in much work on medieval history writing they are deserving of closer scrutiny with implications not simply for how we understand the key narrative sources for early medieval history but also the cultures in which they originated Seeking to fill this historiographical gap this book explores through the prolific writing of historians in the Carolingian Empire how historians in early medieval societies thought about God and what this meant for themselves and their audiences It argues that although Carolingian historians wrote about God's agency with tremendous literary subtlety while reflecting complex theological ideas and attempting to intervene into challenging political realities in many respects they also broke with the example of early Christian historians from Late Antiquity which demonstrates that writing about God was neither a uniform nor inevitable part of early medieval history writing As well as yielding new insights into the nature of these crucial primary sources this analysis helps to provide an overdue examination of the complex relationship between religion and history writing in early medieval societies The book demonstrates that comments about God cannot be reduced to mere political propaganda or even moralistic encouragements for early medieval Christians to lead better lives Instead it argues that these historians sought to communicate a robust theology of divine activity which was relevant and useful for those involved in the often threatening world of Carolingian public life P. Confessional Identity in the Era of the Reformation (1378-1615) Irena Backus, 2021-10-11 This volume deals with the basic problem of how theologians of all confessions handled ancient mainly Christian history in the Reformation era The author argues that far from being a mere tool of religious controversy history was used throughout the 16th century to express profound religious and theological convictions and that historians and theologians of different confessions sought to define their religious identity by recourse to a particular historical method By carefully comparing the types of historical documents produced by Calvinist Lutheran and Roman Catholic circles she throws a new light on patristic editions and manuals the Centuries of Magdeburg the Ecclesiastical Annals of Caesar Baronius and various collections of New Testament Apocrypha Much of this material is examined here for the first time The book substantially revises existing preconceptions about Reformation historiography and view of the past A Descriptive Narrative of the Guild Merchant of Preston in the County Palatine of Lancaster William Pollard, 1883 The Winchester troper from Mss of the Xth and XIth centuries Walter Howard Frere.1894 The Winchester Troper, from Mss. of the Xth and XIth Centuries Catholic Church, 1894 Henry Bradshaw Poetic Language and Religion in Greece and Rome J. Virgilio García, Angel Ruiz, 2014-01-08 This volume Society, 1894 contains twenty five contributions adapted from papers presented at the International Conference on Poetic Language and Religion in Greece and Rome held at the University of Santiago de Compostela on 31tst May 1st June 2012 The book fulfils two principal aims to highlight the impulse and continuity of a research field that combines Indo European and Classical Studies which has generally been recognised for several decades as a very fruitful collaboration and to provide the academic community with the current results of one of the most important topics of Classical Studies The first part of the book focuses on the Indo European tradition tracking its remnants particularly in the Classical languages The Indo European poetic tradition can be traced through linguistic reconstruction formulae onomastics and some scattered mentions in literary texts In the second part the focus is placed on the poetic language in Greece and Rome The rich and complex tradition of Classical literatures makes a clear cut description of the inherited or innovative aspects of the religious and literary development more problematical Ritual or cultic poetry onomastics phraseology paeans and hymns oracles as divine language and magic all receive deep and thorough treatment from a reliable ensemble of scholars P.
