What the River Carries Lisa Knopp,2012-05-18 In this informed and lyrical collection of interwoven essays Lisa Knopp explores the physical and cultural geography of the Mississippi Missouri and Platte rivers she has come to understand and cherish At the same time she contemplates how people experience landscape identifying three primary roles of environmental perception the insider the outsider and the outsider seeking to become an insider Viewing the waterways through these approaches she searches for knowledge and meaning Because Knopp was born and raised just a few blocks away she considers the Mississippi from the perspective of a native resident a dweller in the land She revisits places she has

guides and ordinary Americans made of them as they crossed the country to see the Indians hunt buffalo and eventually build cattle empires and buy up vast tracts of the West But as British blue bloods became American landowners they found themselves attacked and reviled as land vultures and accused of attempting a new colonization In a final denouement Congress moved against the foreigners and passed a law to stop them from buying land      The Prairie World David Francis Costello,1980 Reveals the grassland s history climate landscape ever changing moods and survival battles waged by plant and animal inhabitants      The Ladies' Repository ,1868 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900      MacMillan's Magazine Sir George Grove,David Masson,John Morley,Mowbray Morris,1862      The Southwest in American Literature and Art David Warfield Teague,1997-10 By analyzing ways in which indigenous cultures described the American Southwest David Teague persuasively argues against the destructive approach that Americans currently take to the region Included are Native American legends and Spanish and Hispanic literature As he traces ideas about the desert Teague shows how literature and art represent the Southwest as a place to be sustained rather than transformed 14 illustrations      Western Field ,1908      Mocambo Nights Mocambo Cafe,2001 Award winning poet Patrick Lane is the editor of this remarkable anthology of poetry featuring Canada s most revered writers alongside emerging poets and brand new writers all readers at the Mocambopo readings series in Victoria BC      The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter,2013 Essays about the literary history of Saskatchewan      The Golden Link and Other Poems Lester Courtland Rogers,1895
