Life, on the Line Grant Achatz, Nick Kokonas, 2012-03-06 One of America's great chefs Vogue shares how his drive to cook immaculate food won him international renown and fueled his miraculous triumph over tongue cancer In 2007 chef Grant Achatz seemingly had it made He had been named one of the best new chefs in America by Food Wine in 2002 received the James Beard Foundation Rising Star Chef of the Year Award in 2003 and in 2005 he and Nick Kokonas opened the conceptually radical restaurant Alinea which was named Best Restaurant in America by Gourmet magazine Then positioned firmly in the world's culinary spotlight Achatz was diagnosed with stage IV squamous cell carcinoma tongue cancer The prognosis was grim and doctors agreed the only course of action was to remove the cancerous tissue which included his entire tongue Desperate to preserve his quality of life Grant undertook an alternative treatment of aggressive chemotherapy and radiation But the choice came at a cost Skin peeled from the inside of Grant's mouth and throat he rapidly lost weight and most alarmingly he lost his sense of taste Tapping into the discipline passion and focus of being a chef Grant rarely missed a day of work He trained his chefs to mimic his palate and learned how to cook with his other senses As Kokonas was able to attest The food was never better Five months later Grant was declared cancer free and just a few months following he received the James Beard Foundation Outstanding Chef in America Award Life on the Line tells the story of a culinary trailblazer s love affair with cooking but it is also a book about survival about nurturing creativity and about profound friendship Already much anticipated by followers of progressive cuisine Grant and Nick s gripping narrative is filled with stories from the world s most renowned kitchens The French Laundry Charlie Trotter s el Bulli and sure to expand the audience that made Alinea the number one selling restaurant cookbook in America last year Watch a Video

Put Your Life on a Diet Gregory Johnson,2008 The author lives in a 140 square foot home that doesn t have many of the appliances usually taken for granted as necessary For most of his commuting he walks or uses a bicycle his home is off the electrical and water grids Most people would say this is an impossible way to live but he considers his transition to a simpler life has made him happier and healthier than he has ever been After living in his compact home for several years he has learned that with the smaller living space his freedom has expanded both in terms of finances and free time bills and maintenance are so much lower than the financial and time costs of the average home Living in a smaller space also limits purchases of things thus saving money He still uses around two thousand square feet of living space as before the difference is that the other space is shared with others his office the gym the laundromat the restaurant and other spaces and that space is no longer his responsibility to maintain So not only is he contributing to his community but his overheads and responsibilities are significantly reduced Cataloguer s note A Street Survival Guide for Public Safety Officers Daniel Rudofossi,2017-08-09 An expansion of Dr Rudofossi s theory of Police and Public Safety Complex Trauma this text integrates other models of trauma and loss into a one of a kind intervention model It offers insider perspectives from police psychologists police managers and clinicians describing what police personnel experience on the job along with expert intervent The Eighth Wonder of the World Jerry L.
