Red The Black:

The Red and the Black (1830) Stendhal, 2011-10-15 The little town of Verri res can pass for one of the prettiest in Franche Comte Its white houses with their pointed red tiled roofs stretch along the slope of a hill whose slightest undulations are marked by groups of vigorous chestnuts The Doubs flows to within some hundred feet above its fortifications which were built long ago by the Spaniards and are now in ruins Verri res is sheltered on the north by a high mountain which is one of the branches of the Jura The jagged peaks of the Verra are covered with snow from the beginning of the October frosts A torrent which rushes down from the mountains traverses Verri res before throwing itself into the Doubs and supplies the motive power for a great number of saw mills The industry is very simple and secures a certain prosperity to the majority of the inhabitants who are more peasant than bourgeois It is not however the wood saws which have enriched this little town It is the manufacture of painted tiles called Mulhouse tiles that is responsible for that general affluence which has caused the fates of nearly all the houses in Verri res to be rebuilt since the fall of Napoleon One has scarcely entered the town before one is stunned by the din of a strident machine of terrifying aspect Twenty heavy hammers which fall with a noise that makes the paved floor tremble are lifted up by a wheel set in motion by the torrent Each of these hammers manufactures every day I don't know how many thousands of nails The little pieces of iron which are rapidly transformed into nails by these enormous hammers are put in position by fresh pretty young girls This labour so rough at first sight is one of the industries which most surprises the traveller who penetrates for the first time the mountains which separate France and Helvetia If when he enters Verri res the traveller asks who owns this fine nail factory which deafens everybody who goes up the Grande Rue he is answered in a drawling tone Eh it belongs to M the Mayor

Red, Black, White Mary Stanton, 2019 Red Black and White is the first narrative history of the American Communist movement in the South during the 1930s Written from the perspective of the District 17 CPUSA Reds who worked primarily in Alabama the author's purpose is to acquaint a new generation with the impact of the Great Depression on post war black and white young and old urban and rural Americans After the Scottsboro story broke on March 25 1931 it was open season for old fashioned lynchings legal courtroom lynchings and mob murder In Alabama alone twenty black men were known to have been murdered and countless others women included were beaten disabled jailed disappeared or had their lives otherwise ruined between March 1931 and September 1935 In this collective biography Mary Stanton a noted chronicler of the Left and social justice movements in the South explains what resources Depression Era Reds worked with before those of either the New Deal or the modern Civil Rights Movement became available What emerges from this narrative is a meaningful criterion to evaluate the Reds accomplishments They failed in some measure at everything they attempted from labor organizing to exposing courtroom lynchings and institutional racism Stanton looks at the Reds strategies which in many cases made things worse by uniting angry white supremacists over their constant condemnation of the Southern Way of Life Through seven cases of the CPUSA s activity in the South Stanton covers tortured notions of loyalty and betrayal the Cult of White Southern Womanhood Christianity in all its iterations and the scapegoating of Blacks Jews and communists Yet this still is a story of how Blacks Jews and communists fought back and fought together for social justice and change Algorithms for Functional Programming John David Stone,2018-10-27 This book presents a variety of widely used algorithms expressing them in a pure functional programming language to make their structure and operation clearer to readers In the opening chapter the author introduces the specific notations that constitute the variant of Scheme that he uses The second chapter introduces many of the simpler and more general patterns available in functional programming The chapters that follow introduce and explain data structures sorting combinatorial constructions graphs and sublist search Throughout the book the author presents the algorithms in a purely functional version of the Scheme programming language which he makes available on his website The book is supported with exercises and it is suitable for undergraduate and graduate courses on programming techniques Red Black Arachnia Rise Of A Theif Ryan Melrose, The Badminton Magazine of Sports and Pastimes Alfred Edward Thomas Watson,1899 Westminster Chess Club Papers ,1871
