Red Suitcase American Poets Continuum:

Red Suitcase Naomi Shihab Nye, 1994 A collection of poetry in which the author draws from ordinary people and events for subject matter

Red Suitcase Naomi Shihab Nye, 2013-12-20 Poet teacher essayist anthologist songwriter and singer Naomi Shihab Nye is one of the country's most acclaimed writers Her voice is generous her vision true her subjects ordinary people and ordinary situations which when rendered through her language become remarkable In this her fourth full collection of poetry we see with new eyes a grandmother's scarf an alarm clock a man carrying his son on his shoulders Valentine for Ernest Mann You can't order a poem like you order a taco Walk up to the counter and say I'll take two and expect it to be handed back to you on a shiny plate Still I like you spirit Anyone who says Here's my address write me a poem deserves something in reply So I'll tell a secret instead poems hide In the bottoms of our shoes they are sleeping They are the shadows drifting across our ceilings the moment before we wake up What we have to do is live in a way that lets us find them Once I knew a man who gave his wife two skunks for a valentine He couldn't understand why she was crying I thought they had such beautiful eyes And he was serious He was a serious man who lived in a serious way Nothing was ugly just because the world said so He really liked those skunks So he re-invented them as valentines and they became beautiful At least to him And the poems that had been hiding in the eyes of skunks for centuries crawled out and curled up at his feet Maybe if we re-invent whatever our lives give us we find poems Check your garage the odd sock in your drawer the person you almost like but not quite And let me know
