Redating The New Testament:

Redating the New Testament John Arthur Thomas Robinson, 1976 Redating the New Testament John A. T. Robinson, 2000-10-31 On the basis that the fall of Jerusalem is never mentioned in the New Testament writings as a past fact Dr Robinson defends that the books of the New Testament were written before A D 70 contradicting of course the consensus of generations of Bible scholars Redating the new testament Jhon A. T. Robinson, 1981 Rethinking the Dates of the New Testament Jonathan Bernier, 2022-05-03 This paradigm shifting study is the first book length investigation into the compositional dates of the New Testament to be published in over forty years It argues that with the notable exception of the undisputed Pauline Epistles most New Testament texts were composed twenty to thirty years earlier than is typically supposed by contemporary biblical scholars What emerges is a revised view of how quickly early Christians produced what became the seminal texts for their new movement The Archaeology Of The New Testament Jack Finegan, 2019-06-21 The Archeology of the New Testament is the authoritative illustrated account of what is presently known about the chief sites and monuments connected with the life of Jesus and the history of the early church To follow the order of the New Testament it first investigates sites connected with John the Baptist and then proceeds to Bethlehem and Encountering the New Testament (Encountering Biblical Studies) Walter A. Elwell, Robert W. Yarbrough, 2022-11-15 Studying the New Testament can be an exciting and intimidating experience This readable survey is designed to make the adventure less daunting and more rewarding Two experienced classroom teachers offer a new edition of their bestselling and award winning textbook over 250 000 copies sold This fourth edition takes into account the dramatic shift in the global Christian population Other distinguishing features include abundant images maps and charts all in full color sidebars that address ethical and theological concerns and provide primary source material focus boxes isolating key issues chapter outlines learning objectives and summaries and study questions An accompanying website through Baker Academic s Textbook eSources offers an array of resources for students and professors Resources for students include flash cards and self quizzes Resources for professors include discussion questions and a test bank A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the New Testament Michael J. Kruger, 2016-05-31 Introductions to the New Testament often take a defensive stance focusing on historical critical issues but failing to address the interests and needs of pastors and Bible teachers However with an emphasis on the theology key themes and overall message of each book in the New Testament this collaborative effort of nine biblical scholars takes a more positive and pastorally relevant approach Written from a distinctly Reformed covenantal and redemptive historical perspective this theologically rich expositional resource will equip readers to study and teach each book in the New Testament with clarity and insight Redating the New Testament John A.T.. Robinson, 1984 The New Testament Today Mark Allan Powell, 1999-01-01 This volume offers the collective insight of eleven scholars who represent the spectrum of New Testament studies Their expert commentaries make this book an invaluable resource for both the seasoned researcher and the beginning student The Making of the New Testament Documents E. Earle Ellis, 2021-10-25

The Making of the New Testament Documents investigates literary tradition and their implications for the authorship origin and dating of the New Testament Gospels and letters Building upon earlier research it identifies and compares preformed pieces that in the letters call into question the traditional view that the letters were the sole product of an individual whose authorship could be vetted by internal criteria of vocabulary style and theological expression The numerous and diverse epistolary traditions many non authorial argue for a kind of corporate authorship that until now has been unappreciated and apparently unknown to critical scholarship A comparison of the traditions and of the common opposition they sometimes have in view supports a synchronic relationship of the various New Testament documents all of which with the exception of John s Gospel and letters reflect the pre AD 70 period It thus challenges the tradition of F C Baur still widely followed that apart from a few Pauline letters dates New Testament writings from the last decades of the first century to the first half of the second The author contends that the New Testament is the product of four contemporaneous and cooperating apostolic missions each of which produced a Gospel and a number of letters and each of which faced the same judaizing gnosticizing countermission These four allied missions shared both Gospel and epistolary traditions even as they pursued their discrete tasks in the service of the church The arguments of this book if persuasive will require a reassessment of the history of early Christianity This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
