James Dodd

Reflection Of Evil The:

God's Action in the World Marek Slomka, 2021-04-22 The problem of God's action in the world is at the heart of debates today on the relationship between science and religion. By analysing the issue through the lens of analytic philosophy, Marek Slomka reveals how philosophy can successfully bridge science and theology to bring greater clarity to divine action. This book identifies essential aspects from various branches of theism, starting with traditional Thomistic approaches through to their modified forms such as Molinism and contemporary varieties such as free will theism and probabilistic theism. Analysing crucial elements of God's nature including omnipotence, omniscience, his relation to time and the tension between immanence and transcendence, Slomka reveals the difficulties in proposing a single conception of God through one theistic tradition. Instead of simplistically juxtaposing particular theistic trends, he highlights the value of pluralistic insights that also draw on important scientific theories including Darwin's evolution, quantum mechanics and cosmology. By taking a renewed stance on theism that takes into account modern scientific knowledge, Slomka argues for a new presentation of the problem of God's action in the world.

The Great Reflection D. L. Herring, 2007-10-12 Many faithful Christians go weekly to church, hear the word and read it for themselves. Yet few realize the truths that go unnoticed just below the surface. No, I am not speaking of Bible codes. The Bible has been described as a chest filled with treasures. Some are old and comfortable while others are new and challenging. Are you a seeker of truth? Then dig into The Great Reflection.

Faith in the Enlightenment? Lieven Boeve, 2006 One of the urgent tasks of modern philosophy is to find a path between the rationalism of the Enlightenment and the relativism of postmodernism. Rationalism alone cannot suffice to solve today's problems, but neither can we dispense with reasonable critique. The task is to find ways to broaden the scope of rational thought without losing its critical power. The first part of this volume explores the ideas of Enlightenment philosophers and shows nuances often absent from the common view of the Enlightenment. The second part deals with some of the modern heirs of Enlightenment, such as Durkheim, Habermas and Derrida. In the third part, this volume looks at alternatives to Enlightenment thought in West European, Russian and Buddhist philosophy. Part four provides, over against the Enlightenment, a new starting point for the philosophy of religion in thinking about human beings, God and the description of phenomena.

Constructive Theology Serene Jones, Paul Lakeland, 2005-01-01 Coordinated by Serene Jones of Yale Divinity School and Paul Lakeland of Fairfield University, fifty of North America's top teaching theologians, members of the Workgroup on Constructive Christian Theology, have devised a text that allows students to experience the deeper point of theological questions to delve into the fractures and disagreements that figured in the development of traditional Christian doctrines and to sample the diverse and conflicting theological voices that vie for allegiance today The Keys of Power J. Abbott, 2022-02-01 This book first published in 1932 demonstrates how the control of certain isms has for long moulded the interpretation of Indian belief and ritual by Western writers particularly In every chapter there is some new coordination often iconoclastic of then accepted theory whilst the new wealth of customs carefully recorded is astonishing Long disputed problems such as that of the Maratha devak or that of the ceremonial sowing of seedlings known to Western scholars as the gardens of Adonis have at last been settled through careful research The Surplus of Meaning Theodoor Marius van Leeuwen, 2024-08-19 Theological Reflections on the Problem of Usury Max Kadushin, 2001 Attempts to discover a coherent unity in rabbinic theology Phenomenological Reflections on Violence James Dodd, 2017-04-21 Following up on his previous book Violence and Phenomenology James Dodd presents here an expanded and deepened reflection on the problem of violence The book's six essays are guided by a skeptical philosophical attitude about the meaning of violence that refuses to conform to the exigencies of essence and the stable patterns of lived experience Each essay tracks a discoverable sometimes familiar figure of violence while at the same time questioning its limits and revealing sites of its resistance to conceptualization Dodd's essays are readings as much as they are reflections attempts at interpretation as much as they are attempts to push concepts of violence to their limits They draw upon a range of different authors Sartre Levinas Schelling Scheler and Husserl and historical moments but without any attempt to reduce them into a series of examples elucidating a comprehensive theory The aim is to follow a path of distinctively episodic and provisional modes of thinking and reflection that offers a potential glimpse at how violence can be understood The EPZ Conflict of Interpretations Paul Ricoeur, 2005-01-01 Paul Ricoeur 1913 is Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at the University of Chicago and Dean of the Faculty of Letters and Human Sciences at the University of Paris X Nanterre One of the foremost contemporary French philosophers his work is influenced by Husserl Marcel and Jaspers and is particularly concerned with symbolism the creation of meaning and the interpretation of texts The Conflict of Interpretations ranges across an astonishing diversity of fields structuralism linguistics psychoanalysis religion and faith The essays it comprises are bound together by Ricoeur's customary concern for interpretation and language and all bear the stamp of the systematic and critical thinking which has become his hallmark in contemporary philosophy Edited by Don Ihde
