Peace in Latin America David Díaz Arias, Christine Hatzky, Werner Mackenbach, Sebastián Martínez Fernández, Joachim Michael, Hinnerk Onken, 2024-12-30 This volume shifts the focus from violence to peace studies in Latin America and sheds light on how social groups and individuals resist to violence and strive to create peaceful or at least less violent conditions of conviviality Drawing on social sciences history and anthropology but also on cultural literary and film studies the book examines the role of social mobilizations civic activism and cultural artistic initiatives as responses to the crisis of violence which the state is unable or unwilling to address In this sense it debates what a culture of peace could mean in Latin America Divided into four chapters Chapter 1 discusses peace from an epistemological and philosophical perspective In Chapter 2 the authors discuss the contours of a culture of peace with a particular focus on literary and cinematic narratives Chapter 3 analyses the public debate about the role of the state in peace processes in the case of Costa Rica Central America Chapter 4 examines the importance of civil society activities in peace processes Peace in Latin America is written for a wide and diverse audience that includes researchers professors specialists students civil society activists and political actors not only from Latin America but from all over the world Containing Community Greg Bird, 2016-09-21 Analyzes the role of community in the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy Community has been both celebrated and demonized as a fortress that shelters and defends its members from being exposed to difference Instead of abandoning community as an antiquated model of relationships that is ill suited for our globalized world this book turns to the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy in search for ways to rethink community in an open and inclusive manner Greg Bird argues that a central piece of this task is found in how each philosopher rearticulates community not as something that is proper to those who belong and improper to those who are excluded or where inclusion is based on one s

share in common property We must return to the forgotten dimension of sharing not as a sharing of things that we can contain and own but as a process that divides us up and shares us out in community with one another This book traces this problem through a wide array of fields ranging from biopolitics communitarianism existentialism phenomenology political economy radical philosophy and social theory
