Great Thoughts from Master Minds, 1898 Reflecting 9/11 Heather Pope, Victoria Bryan, 2016-06-22 In over fifteen years the cultural and artistic response to 9/11 has been wide ranging in form and function As the turbulent post 9/11 years have unfolded years that have been shaped and characterized by the War on Terror the Patriot Act the Wars in Afghanistan and Iraq 7/7 Abu Ghraib and Guantamo Bay these texts have been commemorative and heroic have attempted to work through collective and individual traumas and have struggled with trying to represent the terrorist other Many of these earlier domestic heroic and traumatic works have so often been read as limitations in narrative This collection however challenges the language of limitation and provides re-readings of earlier work but also traces the emergence of a new paradigm for discussing the artistic responses to 9/11 one that frames these narratives as dialogic self-conscious and self-reflexive interventions in the responses to the attacks the initial representations of the attacks and the ever-shifting social and geopolitical continuities of the 9/11 decade These texts widen the conversation about the lasting impacts of 9/11 and incorporate strands of discussion on American exceptionalism and imperialism torture and otherness whilst still remaining invested in the personal and collective traumas of the attacks The authors included here ask crucial questions about the way 9/11 is being historicized will it for example be read as a moment of rupture or epoch Will it inevitably be attached to the War on Terror or the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan As they trace the emergent patterns of reflexivity politicization and dissent the contributions here are also implicitly invested in asking how far they extend Reflections of a Pilot Leonard Porter, 2009

James Ford The Unlikely Messenger is a unique individual with a broad understanding of life from having lived life from many lifestyles Peter experienced the good the bad the ugly and then an awakening and redemption His younger years found him struggling with alcoholism and the drugs of the sixties with having learning disabilities including attention deficit disorder and growing up in a violent environment Peter turned to physical training and motorcycles and found much satisfaction in both At an early age Peter crawled into the 12 step recovery program a broken man This was the beginning of Peter s spiritual journey Over the years Peter attained the promises of the program and began living a great life Many years later Peter was initiated into a yogic path that had begun thousands of years ago by an ancient lineage of Masters Peter did not realize that his profound spiritual experience at that time was actually a powerful Kundalini Awakening within him Shortly after his awakening these mystic tales of past lives and powerful wisdom truths began flowing Peter has just completed his seventh book about his life adventures and spiritual journey Peter hopes people find something useful in his writings or at least that they will bring a smile to your face when thinking about Peter this Unlikely Messenger
