Reflexive Modernization Politics Tradition And Aesthetics In The Mod:

Reflexive Modernization Ulrich Beck, Anthony Giddens, Scott Lash, 1994 Three prominent social thinkers discuss how modern society is undercutting its formations of class stratum occupations sex roles the nuclear family and more Reflexive modernization or the way one kind of modernization undercuts and changes another has wide ranging implications for contemporary social and cultural theory as this provocative book demonstrates Children's Healthcare and Parental Media Engagement in Urban China Qian Gong, 2016-10-25 This book analyses parental anxieties about their children's healthcare issues in urban China engaging with wider theoretical debates about modernity risk and anxiety It examines the broader social cultural and historical contexts of parental anxiety by analysing a series of socio economic changes and population policy changes in post reform China that contextualise parental experiences Drawing on Wilkinson's 2001 conceptualisation linking individual's risk consciousness to anxiety this book analyses the situated risk experiences of parents and grandparents looking particularly into their engagement with various types of media It studies the representations of health issues and health related risks in a parenting magazine popular newspapers commercial advertising and new media as well as parents and grandparents engagement with and response to these media representations By investigating a culture of anxiety among parents and grandparents in contemporary China this book seeks to add to the scholarship of contemporary parenthood in a non Western context Crisis Communication, Liberal Democracy, and Ecological Sustainability Majia Nadesan, 2016-05-18 Crisis Communication Liberal Democracy and Ecological Sustainability provides a detailed and empirical analysis of the institutions governing logics risk management practices and crisis communication strategies involved in the 2007 2008 financial crisis the 2010 BP oil crisis and the 2011 Fukushima Daiichi nuclear crisis These human engineered crises threaten sustainability through resource depletion environmental degradation and the growth of geo political conflicts Yet the corporations responsible have returned to profitability by externalizing risks to communities and governments In response to this pattern of crisis management Nadesan argues that contemporary financial and energy complexes pose significant threats to liberal democracy and ecological sustainability This book will be of interest to scholars of communication studies cultural studies sociology political science anthropology and economics State, Market and Organizational Form Ayse Bugra, Behlül Üsdiken, 2011-06-24 No detailed description available for State Market and Organizational Form Germany's Struggle for Modernity Jürgen Kocka, Volker Berghahn, 2025-04-01 In the historiography of modern Germany the nineteenth century's innovations marks a period of seismic change From accelerating demographic growth to growing secularization and the rise of nationalism it was a century which laid the foundations for both a civil society and the dictatorships of the twentieth century In this comprehensive history of Germany from 1780 to 1918 Jürgen Kocka re examines the transformative interactions that took place between society economy culture and politics Innovatively resituating these developments within a wider context of conflict and transformation in Europe this book illuminates new ways to understand the emergence of classical modernity within the nineteenth century Standards Lawrence Busch, 2013-08-16 An investigation into standards the invisible infrastructures of our technical moral social and physical worlds Standards are the means by which we construct realities There are established standards for professional accreditation the environment consumer products animal welfare the acceptable stress for highway bridges healthcare education for almost everything We are surrounded by a vast array of standards many of which we take for granted but each of which has been and continues to be the subject of intense negotiation In this book Lawrence Busch investigates standards as recipes for reality Standards he argues shape not only the physical world around us but also our social lives and even our selves Busch shows how standards are intimately connected to power that they often serve to empower some and disempower others He outlines the history of formal standards and describes how modern science came to be associated with the moral technical project of standardization of both people and things Busch suggests guidelines for developing fair equitable and effective standards Taking a uniquely integrated and comprehensive view of the subject Busch shows how standards for people and things are inextricably linked how standards are always layered even if often addressed serially and how standards are simultaneously technical social moral legal and ontological devices The Future of Union Organising G. Gall, 2009-07-07 While union organising has developed over time and in many different environments it has become apparent that a number of key problems have developed Evaluating its efficacy in terms of union strategies tactics styles and resources this title outlines a number of strategies for improving these deficiencies Coping and Suicide amongst the Lads F. Garcia, 2016-04-08 For every female suicide in Ireland there are five male suicides This book is based on fieldwork done in and around Cork Ireland between 2008 and 2012 among some forty young lads aged 18 34 This anthropological approach aims to help explain why some groups in a specific society or community are more prone to commit suicide than others In addition to suicide this book focuses extensively on related issues such as alcohol drug abuse and other self destructive behaviors prominent within Irish lad culture This includes peer pressures and loyalties chauvinistic jargon homophobic bullying humor and the culture of mocking so as to grasp the cultural expectations of this particular form of masculinity The everyday workings of gender segregation and gender appropriateness is examined in detail by informants while addressing the underlying question whether increased gender equality which includes men could lessen young men's vulnerability to self destructive behaviors and suicide in Ireland The Process of Becoming Other in the Classical and Contemporary World Andreas Gonçalves Lind, Ana Paula Pinto, Dominique Lambert, 2024-10-15 This book considers communication across difference in a variety of humanistic contexts from classical Greek literature to continental philosophy environmental studies media studies science and technology studies animal studies and beyond With contributors from all around the globe including Portugal South Africa Türkiye China Italy and other countries this volume provides a truly diverse range of perspectives on the philosophical and practical dimensions of communicating across otherness and difference Longing in a Culture of Cynicism Stephan van Erp, Lea Verstricht, 2008 Through current expressions of religion people are confronted with all kinds of longings and desires which have no place in a rationalised and alienated culture At the same time these longings are seeking and finding opportunities for expression How to understand this cultural ambiguity The authors in this volume explore the possibilities of a rationality beyond rationalism reflecting beyond the borders of human imagination on the hidden God
