Reform in Detroit: Hazen S. Pingree and Urban Politics Melvin G. Holli, 1969 Black Mayors and School Politics Wilbur C Rich, 2021-12-12 First Published in 1996 Some people believe that if inner city black children had excellent schools they would perform better in them Granted schools are a part of the problem but they are not all of the solution Schools are only buildings where teachers administrators and students interact Learning is a more much complex process There are many forces arrayed against an inner city child that preclude him her from mastering the education process Among these forces are poverty family instability disruptive classroom environments and incompetent teachers There seems to be no end to research and speculation about how to overcome these forces However the author asserts that the gap between black and white children continues to widen With research beginning in 1989 exploring three school systems for this study Detroit Michigan Gary Indiana and Newark New Jersey The book presents a systematic survey of school politics in these three cities giving particular emphasis to local reform efforts Reform in Detroit Melvin G. Holli, 1969 Mayors in the Middle Jeffrey R. Henig, Wilbur C. Rich, 2020-12-08 Desperate to jump start the reform process in America s urban schools politicians scholars and school advocates are looking increasingly to mayors for leadership But does a stronger mayoral role represent bold institutional change with real potential to improve big city schools or just the latest in the copycat world of school reform du jour Is it democratic Why have efforts to put mayors in charge so often generated resistance along racial dividing lines Public debate and scholarly analysis have shied away from confronting such issues head on Mayors in the Middle brings together for students of education policy and urban politics as well as scholars and school advocates the most thoughtful and original analyses of the promise and limitations of mayoral takeovers of schools Reflecting on the experience of six cities Baltimore Boston Chicago Detroit Cleveland and Washington D C ten of the nation s leading experts on education politics tackle the question of whether putting mayors in charge is a step in the right direction Through the case studies and the wide ranging essays that follow and build upon them the contributors Stefanie Chambers Jeffrey R Henig Kenneth J Meier Jeffrey Mirel Marion Orr John Portz Wilbur C Rich Dorothy Shipps and Clarence N Stone begin the process of answering questions critical to the future of inner city children the prospects for urban revitalization and the shape of American education in the years to come Race and Educational Reform in the American Metropolis Dan A. urban schools failed or has reform failed urban schools This book examines existing urban school programs ranging from desegregation to reading improvement in light of available historical empirical and case study evidence Miron and St John and their contributors probe the underlying theoretical normative and political assumptions embedded in specific reform initiatives They explore how reforms might be reconstructed to better address the underlying challenges and they demonstrate that reforms can be constructively critiqued throughout the stages of implementation arguing that greater attention should be paid to ethnic and cultural traditions within urban educational settings Contributors include Leetta Allen
