The Reformed Doctrine Of Predestination

Loraine Boettner D.D., 2017-02-08 The Reformed doctrine of predestination has been coming under fire a lot in recent days especially among open theists that question God's sovereignty in the face of evil. Although this book was written many years ago it still helps to shed light on the true roots of the doctrine and the philosophical and Biblical answers it offers. The doctrine deserves a proper treatment and this work is an attempt at that justification and a look at its history.

Reformed Doctrine of Predestination Loraine Boettner, 2011-12-23 Loraine Boettner's Reformed Doctrine of Predestination offers a clear explanation of the Calvinist position on Predestination. The creeds of many evangelical churches include the doctrine but few contemporary Christians study it. A cogent presentation of the theology and history of Calvinism and Predestination. Boettner's book treats a topic that deserves to be revisited.

The Reformed Doctrine Of Predestination Loraine Boettner D.D., 2020-12-05 The purpose of this book is not to set forth a new system of theological thought but to give a re-statement to that great system which is known as the Reformed Faith or Calvinism and to show that this is beyond all doubt the teaching of the Bible and of reason. The doctrine of Predestination receives comparatively little attention in our day and it is very imperfectly understood even by those who are supposed to hold it most loyally. It is a doctrine however which is contained in the creeds of most evangelical churches and which has had a remarkable influence both in Church and State. Among the past and present advocates of this doctrine are to be found some of the world's greatest and wisest men. It was taught not only by Calvin but by Luther, Zwingli, Melancthon, although Melancthon later retreated toward the Semi-Pelagian position by Bullinger, Bucer, and all of the outstanding leaders in the Reformation. While differing on some other points they agreed on this doctrine of Predestination and taught it with emphasis. The great theologians of history Augustine, Wycliffe, Luther, Calvin, Zwingli, Zanchius, Owen, Whitefield, Toplady, and in more recent times Hodge, Dabney, Cunningham, Smith, Shedd, Warfield, and Kuyper held this doctrine and taught it with force. The book is sent forth with the hope that those who profess to hold the Reformed Faith may have a better understanding of the great truths which are here treated and may value their heritage more highly and that those who have not known this system or who have opposed it may be convinced of its truth and come to love it. The question which faces us then is: Has God from all eternity foreordained all things which come to pass? If so, what evidence do we have to that effect and how is the fact consistent with the free agency of rational creatures and with His own perfections?

Christ and the Decree Richard A. Muller, 2008-09-01 In Christ and the Decree one of the foremost scholars of Calvinism today expounds the doctrines of Christ and predestination as they were developed by Calvin, Bullinger, Musculus, Vermigli, Beza, Ursinus, Zanchi, Polanus, and Perkins. Muller analyzes the relationship of these two doctrines to each other and to the soteriological structure of the system. Back by demand, this seminal work on the relationship between Calvin and the Calvinists is once again available with a new contextualizing preface by the author. It offers a succinct introduction to the
