and sustained by the embedded interests of the country's military industrial complex. A critical evaluation of the role of the military in the political affairs of the government and how it has created structural problems for Pakistan, this book will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Politics and Security, South Asian Foreign and Security Policy, International Relations, Asian Security, and Cold War Studies. Identity and Marginality in India Anwesha Ghosh, 2018-12-07. Decades of conflict and war have forced millions of men, women, and children to flee from their homes and seek refuge in other parts of the country or in foreign lands. Afghanistan is one such country. This book is a study of the displaced Afghan migrant population in India, in particular the persecuted Sikhs and Hindus who are religious minorities in Afghanistan and make up a majority of Afghan migrants in India. It explores the relationship between acculturation and identity development. By focusing on the interactions between the Afghan immigrant population and the Indian society, the author analyses how the community negotiates identity and marginality in a country that does not recognize them as refugees. The author explains how the Afghan migrant population manages and negotiates various identities bestowed upon them by the societies in their home and host countries in their day-to-day existence in India. An important study of acculturation and adaptation issues of migrant groups in the setting of a developing country, this book will be of interest to academics in the field of refugee and migration studies, ethnography of ethnic identity, and Middle East and South Asian Studies. Refugee Management Sumita Das, 2005-01-01
