FACT FILE

Immediately after the two Revolutions of 1917, the Civil War broke out in the former Russian Empire. The two largest combatant groups fought over the control of Russia's political future: the Red Army, known as the Bolsheviks, under Vladimir Lenin's leadership, and the White Army which had foreign influence.

The Reds and Whites also faced resistance from rival militant socialists. The Bolsheviks' initial feats that led to the collapse of the republic were then countered by attacks backed by the Allied Powers. White resistance dwindled until it completely collapsed in 1923 and the Red Army came out victorious. When the war ended, several parts of the Russian empire became sovereign states whilst the rest consolidated into the Soviet Union.
