Ruth A Commentary:

The Book of Ruth Robert L. Hubbard, 1988 In the Old Testament we read God's word as it was spoken to his people Israel Today thousands of years later we hear in these thirty nine books his inspired and authoritative message for us These twin convictions shared by all of the contributors to The New International Commentary on the Old Testament define the goal of this ambitious series of commentaries For those many modern readers who find the Old Testament to be strange and foreign soil the NICOT series serves as an authoritative guide bridging the cultural gap between today's world and the world of ancient Israel Each NICOT volume aims to help us hear God's word as clearly as possible Scholars pastors and serious Bible students will welcome the fresh light that this commentary series casts on ancient yet familiar biblical texts The contributors apply their proven scholarly expertise and wide experience as teachers to illumine our understanding of the Old Testament As gifted writers they present the results of the best recent research in an interesting manner Each commentary opens with an introduction to the biblical book looking especially at questions concerning its background authorship date purpose structure and theology A select bibliography also points readers to resources for their own study The author's own translation from the original Hebrew forms the basis of the commentary proper Verse by verse comments nicely balance in depth discussions of technical matters textual criticism critical problems and so on with exposition of the biblical writer's theology and its implications for the life of faith today Ruth Katharine Doob Sakenfeld, Ruth André Lacocque, 2004 This volume provides a readable introduction to the narrative book of Ruth appropriate for the student pastor and scholar LaCocque combines historical literary feminist and liberationist approaches in an engaging synthesis He argues that the book was written in the post exilic period and that the author was a woman Countering the fears and xenophobia of many in Jerusalem the biblical author employed the notion of hesed kindness loyalty steadfast love which transcends any national boundaries LaCocque focuses on redemption and levirate marriage as the two legal issues that recur throughout the text of Ruth Ruth comes from the despised people of Moab but becomes a model for Israel Boaz converted to the model of steadfast love becomes both redeemer and levir for Ruth and thus fulfills the Torah In the conclusion to his study the author sketches some parallels with Jesus hermeneutics of the Law as well as postmodern problems and solutions Ruth Jeremy Schipper, 2016-01-01 The Birth of Obed 4 13 17 Notes Comments The Generations of Perez 4 18 22 Notes Comments Index of Subjects A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U W Index of Modern Authors A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T V W Y Z Index of Ancient Sources Ruth Jack M. Sasson, 1989 Well known for his work in ancient Near Eastern languages and literature Sasson emphasizes in this revised edition of his commentary on Ruth various philological matters problems of translation idiom and grammar all with strong linguistic insights The author also treats literary features and provides admirably compact and accurate synopses of scholarly debates while often charting his own course For folkloristic interpretation Sasson concentrates on formal aspects of the text to identify the genre of Ruth and then systematically surveys narrative feature provenance date and purpose of writing There is a large bibliography and indexes of biblical citations authors and subjects are provided For this second corrected edition the author has written a new preface outlining developments in Ruth studies since 1979

Judges, Ruth K. Lawson Younger, 2011-04-19 The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today s context To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today s world each passage is treated in three sections Original Meaning Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context Bridging Contexts A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible Contemporary Significance This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved This unique award winning commentary is the ideal resource for today s preachers teachers and serious students of the Bible giving them the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate God s Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written

Ruth: An Earth Bible Commentary Alice M. Sinnott, 2020-06-25 This ecological reading of the book of Ruth takes into account the power which this short story holds speaking to the whole person by engaging each reader s emotions imagination memory and reason Alice M Sinnott demonstrates how the story of Ruth transcends geographical spatial and historical boundaries by appealing to all concerned with the plight of the Earth Sinnott highlights the ecological dimensions of the text that scholars have ignored or dismissed in the past and explores how the narrator gives voice to the way in which the Earth functions throughout the story Integral to her reading of the text is a concern for Earth and matters such as food famine death harvests grain day and night and members of the Earth community Sinnott considers non human characters as legitimate determining factors in the structuring of the narrative and recognizes Earth and members of the Earth community as equally valid subjects By identifying with these aspects of Ruth Sinnott is able to read the text with new eyes and by placing special emphasis in how the narrator depicts the natural world she reinforces how subjects from that world emerge as integral components

Ruth Katharine Doob Sakenfeld, 2012-02 The narrative of the book of Ruth is a drama of ordinary human life but the drama unfolds against a background of the providence and purposes of God Katharine Doob Sakenfeld has written a commentary that makes very clear why the book of Ruth has such great importance as literature and as Scripture Interpretation A Bible Commentary for Teaching and Preaching is a distinctive resource for those who interpret the Bible in the church Planned and written specifically for teaching and preaching needs this critically acclaimed biblical commentary is a major contribution to scholarship and ministry

Ruth E. John Hamlin, 1995-12-12 The book of Ruth set in the period of the judges is a beautiful story of the love covenant loyalty and daring initiative of two impoverished widows Together with a generous open hearted man they demonstrate the truth of Proverbs 23 18 that applies to individuals families communities and nations Surely there is a future and your hope will not be cut off In this excellent commentary E John Hamlin approaches the book of Ruth as literature as history as part of the canon and as truth telling story Ruth Kirsten Nielsen,1997 Judges, Ruth Daniel I. Block,1999-09-20 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text Judges and Ruth Victor H. Matthews,2004-01-12 Sample Text Ruth: A Story of God's Grace Cyril J. Barber,2003-10-07 There is nothing but God s grace We walk upon it we breathe it we live and die by it it makes the nails and axles of the universe concluded Robert Louis Stevenson In Ruth A Story of God s Grace Cyril J Barber trumpets God s grace Grace leads Elimelech to Moab brings Naomi back to Bethlehem guides Ruth to Boaz s field and directs Boaz to Ruth Marvelous infinite matchless grace encircles the Book of Ruth From the gracious acts of God Ruth s time the author draws lessons for twentieth century believers He fathoms the importance of decision making the purpose of suffering and the power of love But the author does more than expound truths he helps the reader understand the Bible text by explaining customs and word meanings He also intersperses his own translation of Ruth throughout his commentary Writing for the Bible student rather than the Bible scholar Barber summarizes the Book of Ruth in a concise introduction places all technical discussions and notes at the back and provides two helpful indexes Ruth Daniel I. Block,2015-12-15 The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the Old Testament serves pastors and teachers by providing them with a careful analysis and interpretation of the biblical text rooted in a study of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament and intended to track the flow of the argument in each book and passage Key Features of the Series In our effort to serve pastors and teachers in their study of the text of the Old Testament for ministry Zondervan has developed a set of distinctive features for this series A Graphical Display of the Text of Each Passage This visual thought flow of the passage will enable the reader to grasp quickly and accurately the main idea of the text its development and supporting ideas For readability the graphical display will be done in the commentator s own English translation of the passage A few paragraphs of discussion following this display will seek to enable the reader to understand how the commentator arrived at this depiction and interpretation of the passage Identification and Discussion of the Main Idea of Each Passage Special emphasis will be placed on identifying and discussing the main thrust of each passage and showing how it contributes to the development of the whole composition The main idea will be illustrated in the graphical display discussed in the introduction to the passage and reflected upon in the Theological and Canonical Significance section of the commentary Help in Drawing Out the Meaning of the Hebrew for Interpretation The goal of this exegetical commentary series will be to draw on Hebrew grammar in the service of meaning Hebrew will not be discussed for the sake of better understanding Hebrew alone Whenever a Hebrew construction affects the interpretation of the text this feature will be discussed and explained Theological and Canonical Significance This portion of the commentary will focus on providing a theological and applicational discussion of the main thrust of the passage This section will build the theological discussion on the exegesis of the text by synthesizing the theology of the passage and elaborating on it Ruth, Esther Marion Ann Taylor, 2020-09-08 A new commentary for today's world The Story of God Bible Commentary explains and illuminates each passage of Scripture in light of the Bible's grand story The first commentary series to do so SGBC offers a clear and compelling exposition of biblical texts guiding everyday readers in how to creatively and faithfully live out the Bible in their own contexts Its story-centric approach is ideal for pastors students Sunday school teachers and laypeople alike Each volume employs three main easy-to-use sections designed to help readers live out God's story LISTEN to the Story Includes complete NIV text with references to other texts at work in each passage encouraging the reader to hear it within the Bible's grand story EXPLAIN the Story Explores and illuminates each text as embedded in its canonical and historical setting LIVE the Story Reflects on how each text can be lived today and includes contemporary stories and illustrations to aid preachers teachers and students Ruth Esther The book of Ruth presents a compelling account of how most of us experience God in our everyday lives We see God working indirectly behind the scenes giving us a theology of divine and human cooperation as those who pray for God's blessings participate in answering their own petitions as well as the prayers of others In Esther's story we recognize our own world today often experiencing it as a place where God seems hidden Her book challenges us in unique ways Edited by Scot McKnight and Tremper Longman III and written by a number of top-notch theologians The Story of God Bible Commentary series will bring relevant balanced and clear-minded theological insight to any biblical education or ministry Ruth Edgar Stubbersfield, 2021-10-29 The subtitle of this book is A Somewhat Different Commentary so how is it different Theology without application can be lifeless and boring and while the comments have been well researched contemporary application has been primarily my focus I hope that with this commentary on the book of Ruth I have written something that can be read for pleasure as well as spiritual growth I started writing this commentary during the drought of 2019 that ravaged Australia prompting me to keep my small farming valley in mind Whenever possible I have tried to tie the lessons of Ruth back to the issues I see in my own community one which has foreign farm workers successful landholders virtuous men and women older godly women who no longer work but have influence the issue of who gets the farm and what constitutes citizenship Joshua, Judges, Ruth (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) J. Gordon Harris, Cheryl A. Brown, Michael S. Moore, 2012-07-01 The authors of this commentary take a canonical historical approach to the books of Joshua Judges and Ruth three books that are diverse yet share the common historical context of the tribal settlement of Canaan They examine Joshua Judges and Ruth as narratives with dynamic theological messages about the dynamic relationship between God's people and the powerful God who gives land and provides deliverers for the people Judges and Ruth Mary Evans, 2017-08-17 The book of Judges presents Israel's frailty the nation's need for deliverance and God's use of flawed leaders to guide his chosen people through a dark period of their history The book of Ruth tells a smaller story within this narrative showing God quietly at work in the lives of a few individuals Mary Evans's commentary places each book in its historical and canonical context examines key theological themes and addresses issues facing twenty first century readers Part of the Tyndale Old Testament Commentaries series designed to help the reader of the Bible understand what the text says and what it means Abingdon Old Testament Commentaries | Ruth Judy Fentress-Williams,2012 Even in famine times God plants seed preparing for the next harvest even when we cannot see it Ruth James McKeown,2015-01-15 In this commentary James McKeown approaches the book of Ruth as part of the whole canon of Scripture exploring not only the content of the book itself but also its relationship to other biblical books He shows in particular how Ruth overflows with allusions to Genesis The themes of blessing seed and land are common to both books and studying Genesis and Ruth together provides profound insights into the providential working of God to fulfill the promises made to Abraham Isaac and Jacob In addition to his exegetical commentary on the text of Ruth McKeown provides useful background material on how the book has been interpreted throughout history including Jewish interpretation and he focuses on Ruth s theology and its application His discussion also touches on such related topics as universalism feminist studies and the missiological significance of the book of Ruth McKeown s insightful commentary will enable students pastors and laypeople to better understand the ancient book of Ruth so that they can better apply its message and wisdom today
