examining present day cities on the brink of extinction These round out the book s focus on disappearing cultural centers and reveal the robust relevance this material has to a world facing the crisis of climate change Government Backed Discrimination, Persecution and Ethnic Politics: Targeting Muslims in Sri Lanka ,2024-12-14 Government supported Buddhist monks and extremist organizations started operating against the Sri Lankan Muslims This was the time when organizations like Sinhala Ravaya Ravana Balaya and the Sri Lanka Podujana Peramuna emerged Since I was in the media field in Colombo I attended many of their media conferences and conducted interviews with them I was able to observe that their activities were taking place with government support This was a time when the Mahinda group believed they could govern with the blessings of Buddhists without the help of minority communities However it is well known that this later became impossible Now why this book Since the beginning of Navamani I have been publishing articles in platforms like the Sri Lankan Muslim online media and Puthiya Kural and I fear that these writings which are not documented in history will be forgotten Therefore I am publishing this in English as well as in Tamil The reason for choosing English is that this book written in Tamil and transformed into a manuscript will contain stories that everyone can recognize However the international community must be made aware of these issues Copies of this book should be sent to several organizations including the UN Human Rights Council Library and Amnesty International and they should be documented by them Many ethnic discriminatory activities have occurred in Sri Lanka but the incidents of racism against Muslims which took place without government support or oversight are recorded in this book initiated by the Rajapakse regime The articles included in this book serve as historical evidence Garden Travel Guide Tom Turner, How to visit the world s most interesting gardens at the best time of year is the subject of this eBook It contains advice and an anthology of some 100 gardens including temple gardens palace gardens tomb gardens and botanic gardens A World Garden is one which represents a significant aspect of the world s garden culture Far Countries as Seen by a Boy Mary Beecher Longyear,1916 In Old Ceylon Reginald Farrer,1908 The Journal of the Manchester Geographical Society Manchester Geographical Society,1905 Journal Manchester Geographical Society,1906 Bridging the Gulf ,2025-10-27 The volume presents papers by archaeologists anthropologists historians and heritage specialists and highlights the multi layered meaning of maritime cultural landscapes The authors shift the emphasis from understanding heritage in its local context to discussing it across the waters of the Arabian Sea The relationship between the sea and the land underlines the centrality of the coast the communities who inhabited the space between the ocean and the hinterland their histories and attempts at constructing their cultural environment An important component of this cultural landscape is monumental architecture and archaeological sites as also their inter linkage with travelling groups who moved both across the sea as well as on routes into the interior A common concern that all papers share is with definitions of maritime heritage different articulations of social and political power and regional and local nautical traditions One of the objectives of this volume is to underscore the important role of World

Heritage especially sites and monuments located along the coasts that have already been identified as national treasures by individual Nation States The objective is to bring these coastal monuments and structures into dialogue with those located across the Ocean for a holistic understanding of maritime cultural heritage of the western Indian Ocean It is suggested that this dialogue across the seas would help in the protection and preservation of a maritime heritage known for its outstanding universal value
