Webb, 1996 Sculpted figural motifs were an important component of many buildings in the Hellenistic world and their frequent relegation to subsidiary status has until now left our knowledge of both Hellenistic architecture and sculpture incomplete In Hellenistic Architectural Sculpture Pamela A Webb examines the full range of figural embellishment from simple to complex on large monuments as well as on more obscure ones and in the major population centers as well as the smaller cities sanctuaries and isolated areas throughout western Anatolia and the Aegean islands In this book the first to focus specifically on the figural adornment of Hellenistic architecture Webb provides extensive information about the chronology and interpretation of figural motifs adorning religious civic commercial commemorative and domestic constructions She finds that figural sculptures adorn structures at every level from the ground to the roof and display a wide variety of motifs on such architectural elements as columns walls entablatures and pediments More than 130 illustrations of Hellenistic monuments temples altars cult buildings heroa theaters bouleuteria stoas gymnasia and houses and their sculptured adornment complement the author s descriptions and analyses The book features an extensive bibliography citing resources from the early nineteenth century to the most recent publications The Monuments of the Eastern Hill Bonna D. Wescoat, 2018-12-13 In this volume the key monuments that form the Theatral Complex including the Theatral Circle the Fieldstone Building with its masonry style plaster interior the marble Doric hexastyle Dedication of Philip III and Alexander IV the elegant Ionic Porch later attached to the western side of the Dedication and the remains of dozens of bronze statues that originally framed the Theatral Circle are presented in their archaeological architectural and historical contexts The potential significance of the Complex within the mystery cult both as the place that initially gave shape to the group of pilgrims undergoing initiation and as the place where new initiates ultimately departed the Sanctuary accords the Theatral

Tracy, 2016-11-29 For a century following the end of the Lamian War in 322 B C Athens harbour at Pireus was almost constantly occupied by a Macedonian garrison The Macedonian presence dealt a crucial blow to Athenian independence and Athenian democracy initiating the first in a long and intermittent series of foreign occupations The twenty eight papers in this volume are based on an international conference hosted by the University of Athens in May 2001 and focus on various aspects of Athenian art archaeology and history in the century of Macedonian domination They consider Athens new role as a political stepping stone for potential Successors to the throne of Macedon Cassander Demetrios Poliorketes and Antigonos Gonatas were each able to secure Macedonia by using Athens as a power base and the ways in which Athenian culture was affected by the Macedonian presence They contribute to the ongoing debate about the reasons for the Macedonian ascendancy the degree of independence accorded Athens by their Macedonian overlords the third century archon list and changes in Athenian art and architecture Studies in Hellenistic Architecture Frederick E. Winter, 2006-12-15 Studies in Hellenistic Architecture is a detailed analysis of the development of the major building types of the Hellenistic age the mid fourth century B C to the time of the Roman conquest of the Eastern Mediterranean In this meticulous work Frederick E Winter reveals how the architects of the period went beyond anything achieved by their Classical Greek predecessors and how these impressive skills prepared the way for many of Rome's later architectural achievements Geographically the monuments included in this volume extend from Spain to Afghanistan and from Provence to North Africa Winter discusses the architectural achievements of the various regional styles of the Eastern Mediterranean and takes a detailed look at Hellenistic developments west of the Adriatic While the interrelationship of these regional developments is often unclear especially in cases where there are no explicit criteria for dating Winter makes excellent use of the advance in scholarship over the past fifty to sixty years offering the first real attempt at a synthesis of this vast subject Studies in Hellenistic Architecture is an invaluable resource containing a wealth of illustrations of the various types of Hellenistic building and the most comprehensive scholarship to date on the topic Arsinoe of Egypt and Macedon Elizabeth Donnelly Carney, 2013-02-26 The life of Arsino II c 316 c 270 BCE daughter of the founder of the Ptolemaic dynasty is characterized by dynastic intrigue This book provides the first accessible biography of this fascinating queen Samothrace Karl Lehmann, New York University. Institute of Fine Arts, 1975 Walking as Embodied Research Christian ErNSTEN, Nick Shepherd, 2024-09-30 In recent years walking has emerged as a methodological tool and as a conceptually exciting point of departure across a range of disciplines and practices This volume explores walking as a form of embodied research practice that offers fresh perspectives on key contemporary debates and areas of interest These include the climate emergency and the debate around the Anthropocene decolonial thinking and the struggle for social justice feminist and queer walking methodologies and the notion of the infraordinary and practices of everyday life Contributions to this volume are by scholars artists and practitioners drawn from a wide range of disciplines and fields and from across the Global South and North An overarching theme of the volume is the manner in which the act of walking brings the body into presence as a material part of the research process and the forms of attentiveness that this encourages Another theme is the intimate connection between the act of walking and the act of writing As familiar landscapes change under the weight of Anthropogenic environmental change walking becomes an act of witnessing and a spur to action Rather than being a singular activity walking itself is understood as a socially economically and politically constructed and contested act This volume will serve as a source of inspiration to readers from across the arts humanities and social sciences who are interested in walking methodologies and in new and sustainable research practices
