Allcock, Antonia Young, 2000 Revised and Updated with a New Introduction During the 19th century the Balkan countries became the subject of a rather romantic fascination for the public at large This vision of the area has been created in large measure by the writing of women travelers such as those represented in this volume The achievements of these women are quite remarkable in many cases their travels were adventurous and even dangerous reaching into parts of the countryside which were remote and hardly known to outsiders Not only as travelers but also in the fields of medical and military service scholarship and education journalism and literature did these women contribute in very significant ways to the expansion of women's horizons and to the attempt to gain greater freedom for women in society in general Contents Editorial Introduction Black Lambs and Grey Falcons Outward and Inward Frontiers Two Victorian Ladies and Bosnian Realities 1861 1875 G M MacKenzie and A P Irby Edith Durham Traveller and Publicist Edith Durham as a Collector Emily Balch Balkan Traveller Peace Worker and Nobel Laureate The Work of British Medical Women in Serbia during and after the First World War Captain Flora Sandes A Case Study in the Social Construction of Gender in a Serbian Context Rose Wilder Lane 1886 1968 Rebecca West Gerda and the Sense of Process Margaret Masson Hasluck Louisa Rayner An Englishwoman's Experiences in Wartime Yugoslavia Mercia MacDermott A Woman of the Frontier An Anthropologist in the Village Bucks Brides and Useless Baggage Women's Quest for a Role in their Balkan Travels Constructing the Balkans Women Travellers in the Balkans A Bibliographical Guide John B Allcock is head of the Research Unit in South East European Studies and is based in the Interdisciplinary Human Studies department at the University of Bradford Antonia Young is a member of the Department for Sociology and Anthropology at Colgate University New York Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie, 2010-03-19 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it's a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other and will soon it is to be hoped advance and take its proper place in Europe and the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Albania relates the history of this little known country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography appendixes and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets Central and South-Eastern Europe 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Comprises a general survey of the region country surveys political profiles of the region and information on international and regional organizations and research institutes The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević,2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region s path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography Albania MaryLee Knowlton,2005 Presents an overview of the history and culture of the people of Albania Ethnobotany in the New Europe Manuel Pardo-de-Santayana,Andrea Pieroni,Rajindra K. Puri,2010-06-01 The study of European wild food plants and herbal medicines is an old discipline that has been invigorated by a new generation of researchers pursuing ethnobotanical studies in fresh contexts Modern botanical and medical science itself was built on studies of Medieval Europeans use of food plants and medicinal herbs In spite of monumental changes introduced in the Age of Discovery and Mercantile Capitalism some communities often of immigrants in foreign lands continue to hold on to old recipes and traditions while others have adopted and enculturated exotic plants and remedies into their diets and pharmacopoeia in new and creative ways Now in the 21st century in the age of the European Union and Globalization European folk botany is once again dynamically responding to changing cultural economic and political contexts The authors and studies presented in this book reflect work being conducted across Europe s many regions They tell the story of the on going evolution of human plant relations in one of the most bioculturally dynamic places on the planet and explore new approaches that link the re evaluation of plant based cultural heritage with the conservation and use of biocultural diversity The Shape of Content Chandler Davis,Marjorie Senechal,Jan Zwicky,2008-10-28 This book is a collection of creative pieces poems short stories essays play excerpts that give shape to mathematical and scientific content This book portrays by example how various people work creatively with ideas from mathematics and other sciences Creative writing about the content of mathematics and science is rare and

Albanians in Michigan Frances Trix,2001 The recent influx of Albanian migrants into Michigan is a result of both the nationalist upheavals in the Balkan region as well as the breadth of opportunities that Michigan affords The diversity of Michigan s people is reflected in the Albanian community itself as Christians and Muslims strive to maintain religious ethnic and linguistic identities in their new communities Frances Trix explores the ways in which Michigan s Albanian community has forged an unusual cohesiveness and unity and thus has remained more traditional in its orientation than have large immigrant Albanian communities in other parts of the United States These characteristics make the Albanian experience in Michigan unique
