statements Artisanal Theology Lisa M. Hess, 2009-01-15 Paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry Unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today's religious ecology How may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Artisanal Theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination Part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship Just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education An artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice Ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the Triune God among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home Natalie Goldberg, 2018-06-05 A powerful memoir from Natalie Goldberg the woman who changed the way writing is taught in this country sharing her experience with cancer grounded in her practice of writing and Zen Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home begins at the grave of Katagiri Roshi Natalie's Zen teacher in Japan Twenty years after Katagiri's death and Natalie's return to New Mexico she is permanently settled in Santa Fe with her partner Yukwan Except that as Buddhism teaches us nothing is permanent Natalie learns that she has CLL a potentially fatal form of blood cancer For two years Natalie dances with her cancer visiting doctor after doctor attempting treatment after treatment Nothing helps in fact one of the treatments only feeds the cancer and encourages its growth Then Natalie's partner Yukwan discovers that she too has cancer breast cancer as well as an off the charts oncotype score that requires her to have surgery immediately The cancer twins as Natalie calls herself and Yukwan now must each navigate her own illness carve out her own cancer territory Each can provide only limited emotional and physical energy for the other And somehow they both need to find a way to stay together to stay in love and to heal As the title expresses Let the Whole Thundering World Come Home is so much more than a cancer memoir Through a direct and grounded narrative Natalie illuminates a path through illness that we need to be in love with the lives we have to embrace the dark and the light in our lives For Natalie writing and painting represent the light and her cancer takes her deeper into her art practices Balanced with a Zen practice that helps to her face death this book is a moving meditation on living life in full bloom The Great Spring

Natalie Goldberg, 2016-02-02 From the beloved writing teacher behind Writing Down the Bones comes a treasury of personal stories reflecting a life filled with journeys inner and outer zigzagging around the world and home again Here Natalie Goldberg shares those vivid moments that have wakened her to new ways of being We follow alongside her mapless meanderings in the New Mexican desert and her pilgrimages to Bob Dylan's birthplace and to Larry McMurtry's dusty Texas ghost town of rare books We feel her deep hunger while she sits zazen in a monastery in Japan and her profound loss when she hears of the passing of a dear friend while teaching in the French countryside Through it all she remains grounded in a life informed by two constants the practices of writing and of Zen With humor and insight Natalie encircles around the essential questions these paths compel her toward Where does this life lead Who are we This is a book to be relished one awakening at a time Each story is a reminder that no matter how hard the situation or desolate you may feel spring will come again breaking through a cold winter bringing early yellow forsythia flowers And the Great Spring of enlightenment that sudden rush of acceptance pain cracking open obstructions shattering will also burst forth Living Color Natalie
