Longing For Running Water Ecofeminism And Liberation:

Longing for Running Water Ivone Gebara, 1999-09-01 Gebara's succinct yet moving statement of her principles of ecofeminism shows how intertwined are the tarnished environment around her and the poverty that afflicts her neighbors. From her experiences with the Brazilian poor women's movement she develops a gritty urban ecofeminism and indeed articulates a whole worldview. She shows how the connections between Western thought, patriarchal Christianity, and environmental destruction necessitate personal conversion to a new relationship with the earth and with the entire cosmos.

Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D. Tirres, 2024-12-03 A new perspective on spirituality and social change as seen through the work of six visionary thinkers. In Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D. Tirres offers an in-depth exploration of spirituality as a catalyst for social transformation, showcasing the profound insights of six distinguished twentieth-century liberation thinkers from across the Americas. This thought-provoking work examines the contributions of Marxist philosopher Jos Carlos Mariategui, renowned educator and philosopher Paulo Freire, innovative constructive theologian Virgilio Elizondo, influential cultural and feminist theorist Gloria Anzaldúa, activist, mujerista theologian, and social ethicist Ada María Isasi-Delgado, and groundbreaking ecofeminist theologian Ivone Gebara. Tirres examines the distinct yet interconnected philosophies of these figures, showcasing their unified critique of colonial Christendom and their deep commitment to the marginalized. He adeptly articulates how their diverse religious and philosophical backgrounds come together in a shared vision of spirituality as a fundamental aspect of human life and intelligence. He further illuminates how these thinkers advocate for spirituality as a non-reductive, life-affirming practice transcending traditional boundaries and offering an integrated approach to faith, culture, and social justice. Their collective insights form a persuasive case for re-envisioning spirituality as a crucial element in the quest for a more just and compassionate world. Liberating Spiritualities is not only a tribute to these six influential figures but also a critical reflection on the relevance of their ideas in today's global context. Tirres's transdisciplinary study bridges liberationist and pragmatic insights, offering readers a fresh, highly original interpretation of socially engaged spirituality, making this book an essential resource for those seeking to understand the transformative power of spirituality in the pursuit of social justice and human dignity.

My Quests for Hope and Meaning Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2013-10-02 This book is an autobiography tracing Rosemary Radford Ruether's intellectual development and writing career. Ruether examines the influence of her mother and family on her development and particularly her interactions with the Roman Catholic religious tradition. She delves into her exploration of interfaith relations with Judaism and Islam as well. Her educational formation at Scripps College and the importance of historical theology is also a major emphasis. Mental illness has also affected Ruether's nuclear family in the person of her son, and she details the family's struggle with this issue. Finally, in this intellectual autobiography, Ruether explores her long concern and involvement with ecology, feminism, and the quest for a spirituality and practice for a livable planet.

Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

End of Days Wendell G. Johnson,2017-07-14 Covering religious traditions ranging from Buddhism to Christianity to Zoroastrianism and modern apocalyptic movements such as Arun Shinrikyo and the Branch Davidians this book addresses prophesied end of days from a breadth of perspectives and includes material on often neglected themes and genres End of Days An Encyclopedia of the Apocalypse in World Religions describes apocalyptic writings in the world s major religious traditions including Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism The cross referenced entries address ancient traditions Zoroastrianism as one example as well as modern apocalyptic movements such as Arun Shinrikyo the Branch Davidians and the Order of the Solar Temple This book s broad scope offers coverage of overlooked traditions such as Mayan Apocalyptic Norse Apocalyptic Native American eschatological literatures and the Tibetan Book of the Dead Readers seeking detailed information on the eschatological and apocalyptic movements and proponents of End Times can reference entries about individuals such as Harold Camping Jerry Falwell David Koresh of the Branch Davidians and James Jones and the People s Temple This single volume encyclopedia also contains numerous historical entries on subjects such as the Great Disappointment the Great Awakening periods of religious revival Joachim of Flora the Maccabean Revolt and the Plymouth Brethren The influence of apocalyptic ideas far outside the realm of religion itself is documented through entries on film including well known modern movies such as The Hunger Games and Apocalypse Now literature by writers such as Dante and works of fine art like Wagner's Götterdämmerung. The inclusion of entries related to literature, film, and other art forms further attests to the wide-ranging social influence of belief in the end of days.

An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theology William T. Cavanaugh, Jeffrey W. Bailey, Craig Hovey, 2011-11-18

An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theology gathers some of the most significant and influential writings in political theology from the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. Given that the locus of Christianity is undeniably shifting to the global South, this volume uniquely integrates key voices from Africa, Asia, and Latin America with central texts from Europe and North America on such major subjects as church and state, gender and race, and Christendom and postcolonialism. Carefully selected, thematically arranged, and expertly introduced, these forty-nine essential readings constitute an ideal primary source introduction to contemporary political theology, a profoundly relevant resource for globally engaged citizens, students, and scholars.
