Vincent Deary,2014-12-30 The first book in a major new trilogy How to Live How We Are How We Break and How We Mend We live in small worlds How We Are is an astonishing debut and the first part of the monumental How to Live trilogy a profound and ambitious work that gets to the heart of what it means to be human how we are how we break and how we mend In Book One How We Are we explore the power of habit and the difficulty of change As Vincent Deary shows us we live most of our lives automatically in small worlds of comfortable routine what he calls Act One Conscious change requires deliberate effort so for the most part we avoid it But inevitably from within or without something comes along to disturb our small worlds some News from Elsewhere And with reluctance we begin the work of adjustment Act Two Over decades of psychotherapeutic work Deary has witnessed the theater of change how ordinary people get stuck struggle with new circumstances and finally transform for the better He is keenly aware that novelists poets philosophers and theologians have grappled with these experiences for far longer than psychologists Drawing on his own personal experience and a staggering range of literary philosophical and cultural sources Deary has produced a mesmerizing and universal portrait of the human condition Part psychologist part philosopher part novelist Deary helps us to see how we can resist being habit machines and supervised the raising of the ship and became the kingdom's first captain through king's decree. The ship was christened the Phoenix to honor Aiden's quest and his daughter's royal marriage. It was the first of six vessels commissioned by the king with shipbuilding and global trade escalating the rapid growth of the small inadequate anchorage. Scota sailed back to Egypt aboard the Phoenix on its maiden voyage at her father's request and having lost any other reason to stay. Everything changed for her with the emotional loss of her husband at the hands of the Nordics. The princess carried the phoenix feather on the return to her homeland fulfilling Aiden's commitment to Queen Nefertiti. King Darian opened her old settlement up for villagers to recolonize and also began construction of a larger seaport capable of handling the increased demands of the realm. The new harbor's location was near the mouth of a small river less than a mile from the castle. While plans for the anniversary celebration were being finalized, Aiden went to the gatehouse to pay the wizard a visit. He hadn't seen Edric since just after his son was born. He took dried corn kernels from the crop the wizard had helped him plant to show the magician some of his own magic. Edric hadn't been as preoccupied with his magic mirror since the quest had concluded spending much of his time grooming his own garden. When there was no answer at the door, the prince walked to the backside of the gatehouse finding the wizard clipping roses from his prized bushes.
