A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY

A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries. Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars, it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway, William Faulkner, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and Richard Wright. Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers. Each chapter places the short story into context, focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles. The Companion takes account of cutting-edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon, embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction, cycles of interrelated short fiction, and comic social and political stories. The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own, featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions. This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature.

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21

Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States. Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme, such as Working-Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories. The heart of the book, however, lies in Part 2, which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work, including Fitzgerald, Hemingway, Richard Ford, Raymond Carver, Eudora Welty, Andre Dubus, Zora Neale Hurston, Anne Beattie, Bharati Mukherjee, J. D. Salinger, and Jamaica Kincaid, as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene.

The Kingdom of Beautiful Colours and Other Stories Isabel Wyatt, 2020-04-30

Once upon a time there was a kingdom of beautiful colours. In the middle of it stood a cloud mountain, and from the top of the cloud mountain you looked down on a wonderful rainbow, shining green and blue and yellow. The King must go on a long journey, so he asks his four sons to care for the kingdom of beautiful colours. But the youngest prince has his own ideas about how that should be done. The Kingdom of Beautiful Colours is just one of seven wonderful tales in this collection by master storyteller Isabel Wyatt. The stories are full of ivory towers, great forests, golden lands, and the star of the sea, which will inspire and enchant any child. Suitable for children aged nine and up, this is a classic collection from the author of The Seven Year Old Wonder Book. A new revised edition, previously published as The Book of Fairy Princes.

More Stories I Lived Kenneth P. Campbell, Ken Campbell's first book of stories from his growing-up years and early adult life Stories I Lived was so captivating that it left readers with an appetite for more. More Stories I Lived will surely satisfy the palate and grab the imagination through the author's vivid folksy storytelling from a much simpler time when survival meant hard work and boys had the time to ride out on horseback and explore the rural wilderness. Campbell writes with humor and purpose as he tells the stories he lived and the hard-learned life lessons that survival gave him. From picking his first tomatoes to raising a willful pet sheep from exploring a hidden cave to sledding uncontrolled down a steep hill from enduring a home-style haircut to corralling a run-away horse. His stories will make you laugh and they will even make you wince. Yet don't worry, everything will come out all right in the end and you'll come away having enjoyed the journey and learned something with the author as well. More wonderful tales from a true treasure. Uncle Kenny takes us to a simpler time with smiles aplenty and great life lessons along the way. Eric Brown, Ministerial Director, Upper Columbia Conference

Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick, 2020-12-14 In Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick presents a creative and rigorous study of black and anticolonial methodologies. Drawing on black studies, studies of race, cultural geography, and black feminism, as well as a mix of methods, citational practices, and theoretical frameworks, she positions black storytelling and stories as strategies of invention and collaboration. She analyzes a number of texts from intellectuals and artists ranging from Sylvia Wynter to the electronica band Drexciya to explore how narratives of imprecision and relationality interrupt knowledge systems that seek to observe, index, know, and discipline blackness. Throughout, McKittrick offers curiosity, wonder, citations, numbers, playlists, friendship, poetry, inquiry, song, grooves, and anticolonial chronologies as interdisciplinary codes that entwine with the academic form. Suggesting that black life and black livingness are in themselves rebellious methodologies, McKittrick imagines without totally disclosing the ways in which black intellectuals invent ways of living outside prevailing knowledge systems. A Deal in Wheat; And Other Stories of the New and Old West Frank Norris, 2025-08-23. Reproduction of the original. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage. The Fawn and Other Stories Thomas Grissom, 2020-08-21. These eclectic short works of fiction should be read as lyric essays of the human condition, comparable in intensity and emotion to lyric poetry created out of the human spirit and brought to life by the experiences and imagination of the writer. Each story is a vignette of the human heart in conflict with itself as it struggles to resolve those human dilemmas that confront, confound, and confuse us in making the choices that determine how we live our lives. The more troubling and controversial the questions, the more relevant and compelling and important the story. These are emotionally charged stories about things that matter: love and honor and pity and pride and compassion that speak truth to life's mysteries and perplexities, the only kind of stories worth writing or reading.
