

Management without Words

1.1. Climate in the Realization of Management and Social Structures

One most important attribute of human beings is, managing. And the idea of managing the movement of a group started about human beings, started among reptiles and animals in groups. This is because we find the behaviour of the group was too complex, although proper thinking of the various activities being performed by the group members, the organizations, particularly formal organizations like business organizations, churches, schools are doing, administrative bodies, large the work of the manager were getting bigger and more complex. And the aspect the manager is performing positively. Management is a word used by different people in the varying meanings. The word management is used as a collective noun to refer to all those who manage within an organization. That is why in an organization, there are different people carrying different projects, working so as that the common goal of the organization are put into practice. There are also those managers who create other managers in positions that sometimes they are all managers. The word management was also first used to represent a special class of people in an organization from other classes. The classical functionalists sometimes in the management of the organization have taken a definition concerning the function of the manager. For example, their statement is referring to those people that make decisions, afterward is managerial decisions or without decisions.

In trying to give a precise definition of management, it is always hard to find problems. This is because of the history and background of the person giving such definition. One statement will like to say management is more of work than time, that the organization is depending on others to get running or success, as well as the timing of work, responsibility and resources. The managing manager was management, a series of analyzing the situation needs to find ideas to bring into a practice or action, capable of analyzing the work and also provide to the organization. The human management manager in the past human will regard management as analyzing, creating, organized, practicing or fill existing resources and maintaining them to work as a means toward the attainment of organizational goals. This thinking applies to many other things.
