Native Sons Reader:

Native Sons James Baldwin, Sol Stein, 2009-03-12 James Baldwin was beginning to be recognized as the most brilliant black writer of his generation when his first book of essays Notes of a Native Son established his reputation in 1955 No one was more pleased by the book's reception than Baldwin's high school friend Sol Stein A rising New York editor novelist and playwright Stein had suggested that Baldwin do the book and coaxed his old friend through the long and sometimes agonizing process of putting the volume together and seeing it into print Now in this fascinating new book Sol Stein documents the story of his intense creative partnership with Baldwin through newly uncovered letters photos inscriptions and an illuminating memoir of the friendship that resulted in one of the classics of American literature Included in this book are the two works they created together the story Dark Runner and the play Equal in Paris both published here for the first time Though a world of difference separated them Baldwin was black and gay living in self-imposed exile in Europe Stein was Jewish and married with a growing family to support the two men shared the same fundamental passion Nothing mattered more to either of them than telling and writing the truth which was not always welcome As Stein wrote Baldwin in a long heartfelt letter You are the only friend with whom I feel comfortable about all three heart head and writing In this extraordinary book Stein unfolds how that shared passion played out in the months surrounding the creation and publication of Baldwin's Notes of a Native Son in which Baldwin's main themes are illuminated A literary event published to honor the eightieth anniversary of James Baldwin's birth Native Sons is a celebration of one of the most fruitful and influential friendships in American letters

Richard Wright's Native Son Ana Fraile, Ana María Fraile Marcos, 2007 An Afro Americanist Ana M Fraile currently teaches postcolonial literatures at the University of Salamanca Spain Her more recent publications include the book Planteamientos estéticos y políticos en la obra de Zora Neale Hurston 2003 chapters about Zora Neale Hurston Gayl Jones Alice Walker and Joy Kogawa in the Rodopi series Perspectives on Modern Literature edited by Michael Meyer and journal articles on African American women writers such as Toni Morrison She is also the editor of bilingual English Spanish editions on the works of Jacob A Riis Como vive la otra mitad Langston Hughes Oscuridad en Espana and Zora Neale Hurston Mi gente Mi gente and the co-editor of The Impact of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms 1982 2002 European Perspectives She has been the recipient of numerous grants and scholarships among which are the Fulbright research grant and several scholarships granted by the Canadian Government in the framework of the Foreign Affairs Faculty Enrichment Program

reading as a political practice to the relational aesthetics of literary engagement from the public sphere as a space of appearance to public intellectuals and the predicament of popularity from Jesmyn Ward's poetics of breathing while Black to the art of the essay in the digital age In considering these topics it engages with a range of philosophical sociological media and literary critical works by scholars including Jürgen Habermas Michael Warner John Dewey Hannah Arendt Jean Paul Sartre Theodor Adorno Nicolas Bourriaud and Pierre Bourdieu But the baseline of the essays collected in this volume is an understanding of literature as a social practice a collective doing and making that involves a multiplicity of human and non human actors writers readers publishers agents book covers prize committees English departments literary characters and styles adaptations for stage and screen In this framework literary texts are not stable objects They are bonding agents in a complex and shifting web of relations and in this capacity they catalyze and channel the activities necessary to forge these relations reading writing publishing republishing citing reciting reviewing recommending Moving back and forth between two shape shifting actors the reading public and a socially engaged literature the assembled essays show how the political functions and uses of literature are defined from within this constellation or more precisely through the collective and reflective forms of judgment including aesthetic judgement that are tried and institutionalized in practicing literature And that are essential to negotiating the shape of the world Which is what the political is all about

From Native Son to King's Men Robert McParland, 2017-11-08 On the heels of the Great Depression and staring into the abyss of a global war American writers took fiction and literature in a new direction that addressed the chaos that the nation and the world was facing These authors spoke to the human condition in traumatic times and their works reflected the dreams aspirations values and hopes of people living in the World War II era In From Native Son to King's Men: The Literary Landscape of 1940s America Robert McParland examines notable works published throughout the decade Among the authors covered are James Baldwin Pearl S. Buck James Gould Cozzens William Faulkner Ernest Hemingway John Hersey Norman Mailer Ann Petry Irwin Shaw John Steinbeck Robert Penn Warren Eudora Welty and Richard Wright McParland explores how popular novels literary fiction and even short stories by these authors represented this pivotal period in American culture By examining the creative output of these authors this book reveals how the literature of the 1940s not only offered a pathway for that era's readers but also provides a way of understanding the past and our own times From Native Son to King's Men will appeal to anyone interested in the cultural climate of the 1940s and how this period was depicted in American literature

Cosmopolitan Minds Alexa Weik von Mossner, 2014-05-15 The book explores the role of empathy and emotion in the emergence of cosmopolitan imaginations through the works of a diverse set of American writers who during World War II and the early Cold War period lived in Europe Asia and Africa It draws on theories of emotion and literary imagination from cognitive psychology philosophy and cognitive literary studies to offer a new perspective on the affective and imaginative underpinnings of critical and reflexive cosmopolitanism It argues that our emotional engagements with others real and imagined are crucially important for the development of cosmopolitan imaginations The book concentrates on specifically American cosmopolitan imaginations in the mid twentieth century focusing on a core of transnational writers who for various reasons had highly conflicted relationships with the American nation Kay Boyle Pearl S Buck Richard Wright William Gardner Smith and Paul Bowles Their literary works are emotionally powerful indictments of institutionalized racism and national violence inside and outside of the United States at the same time they testify to the complex cosmopolitan identities of their authors Reading these texts as affective cosmopolitan critiques the book works out important and complex role played by imaginative and emotional engagements in the development of solidarities that go beyond self family community and nation Reading transnational American literature from a cognitive perspective the book adds a new dimension to recent work in American literary history that seeks to reconceptualize U S literary and cultural production in its global context At the same time it also widens and deepens the array of literature available to researchers in cognitive literary studies

Re-Reading Economics in Literature Matt Spivey, 2020-09-30 In Austrian economic thought human action guides all social and cultural experience For both the real world and for fictional texts this starting point can illuminate literature in new ways and offer valuable insight for literary critics who have previously been beholden to Marxism and other anti capitalist perspectives In Re Reading Economics in Literature A Capitalist Critical Perspective Matt Spivey posits that in its relationship to literature Austrian economic criticism entails a methodology that embraces the following 1 an analytical reading that promotes both the individual artist as the creator of literature and the individual reader as the consumer of literature 2 an understanding of the entrepreneurial quality of literature that capitalism is a system that embraces creativity and evolution in the marketplace and 3 a recognition of subjective value as fundamental to human choice and action both in art and in the real world In addition to the study of the individual Spivey also incorporates the concepts of business cycles government intervention social dynamics and technological evolution in his analysis Scholars of literary studies and economics will find this book particularly useful

Native Son Richard Wright, 1989 Reading as a Philosophical Practice Robert Piercey, 2020-12-15 Reading as a Philosophical Practice asks why reading everyday reading for pleasure matters so profoundly to so many people Its answer is that reading is an implicitly philosophical activity To passionate readers it is a way of working through and taking a stand on certain fundamental questions about who and what we are how we should live and how we relate to other things The book examines the lessons that the activity of reading seems to teach about selfhood morality and ontology and it tries to clarify the sometimes paradoxical claims that serious readers have made about it To do so it proposes an original theoretical framework based on Virginia Woolf's notion of the common reader and Alasdair MacIntyre's conception of practice It also asks whether reading can continue to play this role as paper is replaced by electronic screens
