Paris Volume 2 1929:

Le Corbusier - Œuvre complète Volume 7: 1957-1965 Willy Boesiger, 2015-04-24 This exceptional Complete Works edition documents the enormous spectrum in the oeuvre of one of the most influential architects of the 20th Century Published between 1929 and 1970 in close collaboration with Le Corbusier himself and frequently reprinted ever since the eight volumes comprise an exhaustive and singular survey of his work The Rise and Propagation of Historical Professionalism

Rolf Torstendahl, 2014-08-13 This book examines the evolution of historical professionalism with the development of an international community that shares a set of values regarding both methodological minimum demands and what constitutes new results Historical professionalism is not a fixed set of skills but a concept with varying import and meaning at different times depending on changing norms Torstendahl covers the propagation of these different ideals and of new educational forms from the late 18th century to the present from Ranke's state centrism to a historiography borne by social theories

Beklemishev, 2000-04-01 Provability Computability and Reflection Immeuble 24 N.C. et Appartement Le Corbusier. Apartment Block 24 N.C. and Le Corbusier's Home Jacques Sbriglio, 2015-04-24 the construction of the apartment block at number 24 rue Nungesser et Coli in Paris between 1931 and 1934 was an important milestone for Le Corbusier and Pierre Jeanneret It was the first opportunity offered to them in France to put to the test theories on urbanism and architecture which they had been working on since the 1920s cinq points de l'architecture moderne and marks an important stage on the path to Brutalism And it is of all the more interest because of the apartment and art studio Le Corbusier designed for the top two floors of the building and in which he lived from 1934 until his death in 1965 Historical documents and drawings make this handy sized volume an invaluable guide for visitors and a practical introduction for all architectural enthusiasts Science and Civilisation in China: Volume 1, Introductory Orientations Joseph Needham, Ling Wang, 1954 For contents see Author Catalog The President's Report Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.), 1928 The Beehive Metaphor Juan Antonio Ramírez, 2000 Juan Antonio Ramírez examines the complex ideological artistic political and architectural repercussions of apian metaphors and their influence on architecture and ecological thinking for those in the Modern Movement of architecture Contact Point, 1927 Jean Epstein Christophe Wall-Romana, 2016-05-16 If cinema can be approached as poetry and philosophy it is because of Jean Epstein Cocteau Buñuel who was his assistant Hitchcock Pasolini and Godard and theoreticians Kracauer Deleuze and Rancière are directly influenced by Epstein's pioneering film work writings and concepts This book is the first in English to examine his oeuvre comprehensively An avant garde artist and an anti elitist intellectual Epstein wanted to craft moments of pure transformative cinema Using familiar genres melodramas and documentaries he hoped to heal viewers of all classes and hasten social utopia A lover of cinema as cognitive and sensorial technology and a poet of the screen he pushed cinematography as photography towards the experimental sublime through daring close ups rhythmic montage slow motion even reverse motion Polish born half Jewish and the author of a treatise on homosexuality Epstein has been unfairly relegated to the shadows of film history This book restores him to the limelight of interwar world cinema on a par with Renoir Lang Capra and Eisenstein Recent Geographical Literature, Maps and Photographs Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1928 Recent Geographical Literature, Maps, and Photographs Added to the Society's Collection ,1928 Manganese United States. Architecture and Movement Peter Blundell Jones,Mark Meagher,2014-12-17 The experience of movement of moving through buildings cities landscapes and in everyday life is the only involvement most individuals have with the built environment on a daily basis User experience is so often neglected in architectural study and practice Architecture and Movement tackles this complex subject for the first time providing the wide range of perspectives needed to tackle this multidisciplinary topic Organised in four parts it documents the architect's planner's or designer's approach looking at how they have sought to deploy buildings as a promenade and how they have thought or written about it concentrates on the individual's experience and particularly on the primacy of walking which engages other senses besides the visual engages with society and social rituals and how mutually we define the spaces through which we move both by laying out routes and boundaries and by celebrating thresholds analyses how we deal with promenades which are not experienced directly but via other mediums such as computer models drawings film and television The wide selection of contributors include academics and practitioners and discuss cases from across the US UK Europe and Asia By mingling such disparate voices in a carefully curated selection of chapters the book enlarges the understanding of architects architectural students designers and planners alerting them to the many and complex issues involved in the experience of movement Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures Information Circular , 1933

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R.
Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries "Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939 " Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La Révolution surréaliste edited by André Breton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot's clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s
