Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen, 2015-08-21 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965 1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films flexi disc records critical writings artists postage stamps and collectible chapbooks Avalanche 1970 1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979 1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content offers an essential guide to a little explored medium Disappearing Witness Gretchen Garner,2003-07-25 In documenting this transformation in American photography Disappearing Witness forcefully rethinks the history of photography itself Kentucky James C. contemporary American culture Stilgoe offers a provocative and very personal look into his enduring fascination with and the possibilities inherent in creating one's own images
