work of New York City's theater technicians shining a light on the essential contributions of unionized stagehands carpenters electricians sound engineers properties artisans wardrobe crews makeup artists and child guardians Too often dismissed or misunderstood as mere functionaries these technicians are deeply engaged in creative problem solving and perform collaborative intricate choreographed work that parallels the performances of actors singers and dancers onstage Although their contributions have fueled the Broadway machine their contributions have been left out of most theater histories Theater historian Christin Essin offers clear and evocative descriptions of this invaluable labor based on her archival research and interviews with more than 100 backstage technicians members of the New York local of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees A former theater technician herself Essin provides readers with an insider's view of the Broadway stage from the suspended lighting bridge of electricians operating followspots for A Chorus Line the automation deck where carpenters move the massive scenic towers for Newsies the makeup process in the dressing room for The Lion King the offstage wings of Matilda the Musical where guardians guide child actors to entrances and exits Working Backstage makes an significant contribution to theater studies and also to labor studies exploring the politics of the unions that serve backstage professionals protecting their rights and insuring safe working conditions Illuminating the history of this typically hidden workforce the book provides uncommon insights into the business of Broadway and its backstage working relationships among cast and crew members

Silver Lining Sandi Toksvig, 2017-04-14 How unbelievably dull my life was I did everything I was supposed to I was such a good girl I lived in the house he chose and cleaned a dead woman's furniture I bought hats who the hell wears a hat And all the time I wanted to scream because I was so bored On one dark and stormy night in the upper day room of the Silver Retirement Home five elderly women are trading stories of their remarkable or sometimes unremarkable lives With the storm floods rising and no rescue team in sight the ladies are faced with the sudden realisation that in order to survive they are going to have to do what they have done for their entire lives do it themselves Silver Lining is a hilarious comedy by Sandi Toksvig It tells the tale of a group of extraordinary yet forgotten women who come together one treacherous night to recreate The Great Escape senior citizen style It received its world premiere at the Rose Theatre Kingston on 3 February 2017 in a production by English Touring Theatre and Rose Theatre Kingston

Women Adapting Bethany Wood, 2019-05-29 When most of us hear the title Gentlemen Prefer Blondes we think of Marilyn Monroe and Jane Russell's iconic film performance Few however are aware that the movie was based on Anita Loos's 1925 comic novel by the same name What does it mean Women Adapting asks to translate a Jazz Age blockbuster from book to film or stage What adjustments are necessary and what if anything is lost Bethany Wood examines three well known stories that debuted as women's magazine serials Gentlemen Prefer Blondes Edith Wharton's The Age of Innocence and Edna Ferber's Show Boat and traces how each of these beloved narratives traveled across publishing theatre and film through adaptation She documents the formation of adaptation systems and how they involved women's voices and labor in modern entertainment in ways that have been previously underappreciated What emerges is a picture of a unique window of time in the early decades of the twentieth century when women in entertainment held influential positions in production and management These days when filmic adaptations seem endless and perhaps even unoriginal Women Adapting challenges us to rethink the popular platitude The book is always better than the movie
